Taylor's Mission May Signal U.S. Viet Nam Help

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER

WASHINGTON (AP) — The possibility of direct U.S. military intervention in South Viet Nam appeared to be sharpened today by President Kennedy's decision to send Gen. Maxwell D. Taylor on an urgent mission to assess the growing Communist threat to the Southeast Asian country.

Taylor, a top Kennedy military adviser, is scheduled to leave Sunday, make a fast survey of the increasingly dangerous situation, then give Kennedy an "educated military guess" on the size of the Communist menace and steps that could be taken to meet it. Officials said the U.S.-supported government of President Ngo Dinh Diem is coming under very heavy Red pressure.

The President announced the Taylor mission at a news conference Wednesday at which he also made clear that he will send Ambassador Llewellyn Thompson back to Moscow shortly to resume exploratory talks with Soviet leaders on possible settlement of the Berlin crisis.

Thompson, in addition, is ex-

Medical Care for Aged Failure, Says Sponsor

NORWICH, N.Y. (AP) — The expanded program of medical care for the aged in the state is a failure, the sponsor of the legislation says.

"The intent of the legislation has been thwarted by the administration of the Department of Social Welfare," Sen. George R. Metcalf, R-Auburn, charged.

The medicare legislation he sponsored was designed to provide public help with medical bills for aged persons who were not on relief but who lacked sufficient funds to pay heavy medical bills.

The legislation was a result of a federal program.

Metcalf, in a speech last night at the 56th annual meeting of the sixth district of the State Medical Society, admitted failure of the legislation.

The legislation provided that, before public funds were given, any income of a single person in excess of $1,800 a year must be applied toward the medical bill. In addition, any liquid assets in excess of $900 also must be used before the aid was given.

For married couples, the limits are $2,600 and $1,300.

Metcalf said that the department had ruled that, in cases where an illness was not expected to be long-term, whatever a person earned in six months, plus whatever other cash he had, was to be considered available for medical bills.

"I submit that this makes a mockery of the bill's intent and should be corrected immediately either through department action or medical aid be withheld until re-

Iodine Level Low In N. Y.—Report

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP) — The level of radioactive iodine 131 in New York State is "very low," the State Health Department said today.

A department spokesman said that the state had been keeping a close watch on the amount of radioactive iodine 131 and that there has not been any substantial increase as the result of nuclear fallout.

Soviet nuclear tests have introduced radioactive iodine 131 into fresh food supplies in many areas of Southeastern United States, according to federal public health officials.

About half the 10,000 are Army men, the other half Air National Guardsmen.

The Pentagon said Wednesday that the 3rd Armored Cavalry Regiment, with a strength of about 3,000 men, would go overseas at an early date. Another 2,000 soldiers also will be sent to handle and guard weapons and equipment being stored against the possibility that full-sized Army divisions might go later.

Air Units Going Nov. 1

Eleven fighter squadrons of federalized Air National Guard units, with a total manpower of about 5,000 pilots and support personnel, will start heading overseas Nov. 1.

The ground and air units will be added to five Army divisions, elements equaling another division, and 17 tactical air squadrons now in West Germany and France.

Both the ground and air units in this new augmentation are equipped and trained for conventional warfare.

Can Guide Ride Back From Space

EDWARDS AIR FORCE BASE, Calif. (AP) — In the most dangerous X15 flight yet, a pilot set a world's record for going up—to prove this important point about coming down.

That an astronaut doesn't have to ride back to earth as a prisoner in a falling capsule—but can fly safely through the earth's atmosphere in a winged craft and land where he wishes.

Air Force Maj. Bob White Wednesday set a new world's record for winged flight, a diver belly-into a swimming pool. The stress and friction heat would have torn a conventional capsule apart.

Proves Techniques

The method spreads the heat of re-entry over a large area of the plane. Wednesday's successful flight proved techniques which may be used in re-entries on future Dyna-Soar and Apollo manned orbital flights in winged rocket craft, scientists said.

White said the windshield broke as the plane hit the thickening atmosphere at 65,000 or 70,000 feet. He said the crack, on the outer glass, didn't interfere with his control of the plane.

The temperature on the X15's nose reached 900 degrees—300

Upstate DA Charges State Gives Farmers a Bad Deal

CANTON, N.Y. (AP) — The state has turned its back on farmers seeking compensation for damage allegedly done by State Power Authority Surveyors, the St. Lawrence County district attorney charges.

About 20 farmers in the communities of Russell, Hermon and Edwards have met with Bowers to form a landowners association. They complained that authority crews cut fences and trees in the survey.

They have not filed any damage claims yet "because they don't know how," Bowers said.

He also charged that the Power Authority was offering contracts for land at values based on 1942 prices. The federal government built a transmission line in the same area that year.

The farmers cooperated with the federal government then because their property was at war, he said. The present situation is different, he maintained.

Earlier this year, Bowers advised farmers to use clubs if surveyors damaged their property. The present situation is different, he maintained.

Early Halt Of Tension Is Doubted

U.S. Buildup Ends Hope for Tax Cut

By WHITNEY SHOEMAKER

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Kennedy sees no easy or early halt to East-West collisions which have pushed mankind to, as he views it, the gravest danger point in all history.

"There still are very major differences," he says, between the Western powers and the Soviet Union.

The talks he and Secretary of State Dean Rusk have had with Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko in the last few weeks have failed to produce immediate hope of achieving agreement on Berlin, Kennedy told his news conference Wednesday.

Hope to Avoid War

"Our ambition is to protect our vital interests without a war which destroys and doesn't really represent a victory for policy," Kennedy said. He added that he is concerned in this age of annihilating weapons because: "We happen to live in the most dangerous time in the history of the human race."

Other areas of conflict exist outside Germany, he said—and announced he is dispatching Gen. Maxwell D. Taylor for an on-scene survey of South Viet Nam.

Taylor, the President's military adviser, leaves Sunday and will meet with Vietnamese President Ngo Dinh Diem and U.S. officials to discuss ways of helping South Viet Nam cope with expanding Communist attacks.

Taylor also may visit Laos and Cambodia.

A crowd of 300 newsmen and visitors attended the news conference, which also could be seen across the country via television. It was the chief executive's 16th news conference in Washington, the first in nearly 1½ months and the first opened since 103 degrees Wednesday.

Drug Not Cause

At that time, Dr. Short said the pneumonia was not caused by use of an anticancer drug, which may prolong his life but effect no cure. The anticancer treatment was suspended because of the pneumonia.

Dr. Short said Rayburn was put on the critical list because of pneumonia and not from any worsening of the cancer.

"Pneumonia is something that can be cured," he added.

The doctor said the pneumonia developed Tuesday afternoon and that Rayburn lapsed into unconsciousness.

"We don't go in for headbutting," Meany said. "You'll have to ask Mr. Hoffa about that."

Will Sue Meany

Hoffa said in Detroit Wednesday night that he will sue Meany for $1 million on grounds of slander and libel. The Teamsters chief said the suit will be filed in U.S. District Court in Detroit next March.

Hoffa said he plans the court action because he wants to force Meany to try to prove his charges of corruption in the Teamsters Union.

Kingston Rate Among Highest

In State for Electric Power

Kingston residents pay an average of $9.26 a month for electricity, a figure which ranks among the highest in New York State, the Federal Power Commission reported in Washington D. C. today.

New Yorkers on the average pay 98 cents more a month for electricity than the national average.

The average residential bill in New York State is $8.43 monthly for 250 kilowatts. The national average is $7.45.

The commission's figures were based on electric rates in effect last Jan. 1. It said no attempt was made to determine whether the bills were reasonable.

Rates nationally varied from an average of $4.74 a month in Washington State to $10.75 in Alaska.

In New York, typical bills ranged from $4.40 at Ilion, which has a publicly owned electric plant, to $9.84 at Middletown, Goshen and 13 other Catskill area communities.

Last Days to Register

Friday and Saturday are the last days of registration in the City of Kingston for the November 7 general election. The polls in the wards of the city will be open Friday from 10 a. m. to 10 p. m. and Saturday from 7 a. m. to 10 p. m.

Eligible voters in the city who fail to go to the polls tomorrow or Saturday and register will be unable to vote in this important election.

In Ulster County communities outside Kingston, polls will be open Saturday from 1 p. m. to 10 p. m. In these areas, new residents should check to make sure their names are on the registration rolls.

Plan to register by 10 o'clock tomorrow. Putting it off to the last hour may cost you your vote as something may happen to prevent you from registering Saturday.

Once again we remind citizens that unless they are registered they cannot vote.

Hokkaido Fallout Deserves Serious Study, Gen. Says

TOKYO (AP) — Maj. Gen. Oliver K. Niess, U.S. Air Force surgeon general, said today radioactive fallout recorded in northern Japan "deserves very, very serious study."

Asked at a news conference if he would be concerned for the health of men under his command who were exposed to such fallout, Niess replied: "I would have serious concern until I knew all the facts. Of course, I am always concerned about the health of my people."

Port Ewen to Ease Water Shortage With Lake Supply

The purchase of 2,500 feet of pipe at a cost of $6,000 to provide a feeder main from Esopus Lake to Port Ewen Water District lines is expected to ease the critical water shortage there in about 10 days, the water commissioners told Esopus Town Board at a meeting Wednesday night.

Zale Liese, chairman of Port Ewen Board of Water Commissioners, reported on the critical water shortage and told the Town Board they have advised Port Ewen water consumers that water usage should be kept to a minimum in order to conserve pressure in the event of a fire emergency.

Chico Marx Dies Of Heart Ailment

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Leonard Marx, a tailor's son who wanted to be a businessman but instead became Chico of the Marx brothers' comedy team, is dead at 70.

Chico, oldest member of the impossibly irreverent brothers whose vaudeville and movie fans included low-brows and intellectuals alike, died of a heart ailment Wednesday. He had been ill for several months.

Chico and brothers Groucho (Julius), Harpo (Arthur), Zeppo (Herbert) and Gummo (Milton) transformed low comedy into high art for three decades—with their special brand of winks, whistles and wisecracks.

Their last movie was in 1949, entitled "Love Happy," and the cast included an obscure blonde actress, Marilyn Monroe, in her first film.

Zeppo and Groucho entered private business years ago. Chico, who loved gambling, cards and golf, lived quietly in recent years. Only Groucho, 66, is still an active performer.

Republican Backs 7-Bank Merger

WASHINGTON (AP)—A Republican congressman backs the proposed merger of seven New York State banks to form the Morgan New York State Corp., a holding company. Two Democratic House members oppose the plan.

Rep. Robert R. Barry, R-N.Y., in a statement in a post-session of the Congressional Record, said:

"It is my hope and expectation that the results of this action will prove beneficial to both the economy and the people of New York State."

Reps. Emanuel Cellier, D-N.Y., and Wright Patman, D-Texas, have voiced opposition to the plan. The Federal Reserve Board has called public hearings for Dec. 7.

Barry placed in the Record a statement by Oren Root, state superintendent of banks, detailing his approval of the plan.

The seven banks that would form the holding company are: Morgan Guaranty Trust Co., New York City; Manufacturers &

Traders Trust Co., Buffalo; Lincoln Rochester Trust Co., Rochester; National Commercial Bank & Trust Co., Albany; First Trust & Deposit Co., Syracuse; Oneida National Bank & Trust Co. of Central New York, Utica; and First City National Bank, Binghamton.

Gas Income Rises

Despite More Compacts

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP)—The state's income from gasoline taxes continues to rise, despite a trend toward gas-frugal compact cars.

With the fiscal year half over, the State Tax Department said it expected to collect an estimated $227 million in gasoline and diesel fuel taxes, an increase of $5 million over the previous fiscal year.

The total number of vehicles registered in the state has continued to rise and sales of gasoline have risen accordingly.

Revenues from the State Motor Fuel Tax totaled $56 million through Aug. 1, an increase of $2 million over the corresponding period of the 1960-61 fiscal year.

Approval Given Loan Assn. For Town of Ulster Branch

The Savings and Loan Association of Kingston, 267 Wall Street, has received official notice of approval from New York State Superintendent of Banks Oren Root, and the Banking Board for establishment of a branch office in the Ulster Shopping Center, now under construction on the former Krauss Farm property on the west side of Route 9W just north of the city line, in the Town of Ulster.

The Ulster Shopping Center is being constructed by the Plaza Investors' Corporation, of which Harold Lewis is president.

In announcing the approval for the branch, President Alfred D. Ronder said it was after long and careful consideration that the directors of the Association selected this location feeling that it was in the fastest growing area in Ulster County. In the past ten years, the Town of Ulster has experienced a phenomenal population increase of 91 per cent, Ronder pointed out. This is one of the highest population increases in the entire Hudson valley.

The Association, with assets of over $18,000,000 was the first to make student loans for higher education. It also granted the first GI loan made in Ulster County in 1945, and has maintained leadership in loans to veterans ever since. It was also the first financial institution in Ulster County to provide electronic data processing for its mortgage loans six years ago.

Lewis congratulated President Ronder for securing the approval of the Banking Department and welcomed the Association as a tenant. He pointed out that the new branch would be the only savings type institution in the Shopping Center along with Food Fair Markets, Woolworths and the Wallace Company, and other retail establishments.

Supervisor Alexander J. Banyo said: "In behalf of the Town of Ulster, I welcome the Savings and Loan Association and wish them success in their new branch."

President John Drewes of the Ulster Kiwanis Club welcomed the Association as a new business in the town area.

KINGSTON, NEW YORK, OCTOBER 12, 1961

SAFETY MUST BE BUILT-IN

Slowly, some modest dividends are resulting from the campaigns by health, safety and other groups for seat belts in automobiles.

Wisconsin has just passed a law which makes seat belts mandatory on all '62-model cars.

New York has joined Michigan and California in a new legal requirement that all new cars sold in those states after Oct. 1, 1962, must have metal anchorages for the installation of belts.

Starting with the 1962 model year, the federal government is requiring seat belt anchorages for both front and rear seats in all cars it purchases.

Presumably this means that some time next year all new cars will have at least the front seat anchorages, wherever they are sold. Bigger questions remain: How many motorists will actually buy the belts, and how many will use them steadily if they do?

Today only three per cent of this country's passenger cars are thus equipped, and an auto industry survey showed that just 36 per cent of drivers with belts used them all the time.

Contrast this with progressive, safety-conscious Sweden, where more than half of the nation's cars are equipped not just with the lap belts we settle for, but with shoulder or chest harness.

New arguments should not have to be made for the tremendous value of good seat belts. Tests have proved convincingly that they can save lives and prevent injuries on a big scale.

If anyone, however good a driver, imagines that he is somehow immune from highway dangers, he should take note of the estimate by U.S. Surgeon General Luther Terry that 70 per cent of licensed U.S. drivers will be involved in some kind of auto accident in the next five years.

He estimates that 5,000 lives would have been saved in 1960 alone, by use of seat belts.

This matter has another aspect. The impending general installation of belt anchorages is enticing more manufacturers of belts into the field. Wisely, the U.S. Public Health Service asked Consumers Union, a veteran product and materials testing organization, to check the quality of seat belts now in the market.

Dramatic tests, conducted this time by a highly regarded Swedish laboratory with experience on safety belts, simulated crash conditions.

Twenty-eight of 50 belt models tested survived the highest speed check, but only six did so without any sign of failure. The others developed some weakness in belt webbing or stitching.

Five types survived the second speediest crash, with one showing weakness, and seven passed the minimum speed test, though two of these began to give.

The other 10 were marked unacceptable, failing one way or another at the minimum crash speed.

Obviously, rigid self-policing by car makers and auto parts suppliers is in order. As a safety device good belts are proven. There could be nothing more cruel, however, than for a motorist to put his trust in belts which fall short of today's standards.

PANES-BREAKING VANDALISM

Years ago progressive-minded architects insistently demanded better designed school buildings with lots of light and air—which meant big areas of glass.

Now we're getting them, and in some cities and towns they have become an almost intolerable burden. The reason: vandalism.

With the "modern school" here, authorities are turning to such modern culprit catchers as the electric eye, electronic fences and similar devices, hoping thus to preserve the fancy new buildings for the youngsters who are said to need them so badly.

'These Days'

By GEORGE SOKOLSKY
GERMAN SURVIVAL

I saw a piece about Germany in which it was said that the Germans are the greatest miscalculators in history. I presume that the writer referred to World War I and World War II. But the German people have existed for many centuries, even before Julius Caesar tried his hand at history, and the Teutonic peoples have produced so much in education, philosophy, history, anthropology, chemistry, physics and every field of learning that it is impossible to say that they miscalculated. What can be said was that they were defeated in two wars, although they have been victorious in many more wars. They were defeated by the superiority of American industry and the willingness and capacity of our industrialists and workers to be productive.

This has nothing to do with miscalculation because every study of American production in, say 1912, would have justified the assumption that Germany could win a war against Great Britain, France and Russia. And Germany held out from 1914 to 1917 when the United States upset the balance by entering World War I actively. Similarly, Hitler was able to hold out on multiple fronts from 1939 to 1945 but weakened and was ultimately defeated by the genius and capacity of American industry. World War II was won in the mills and factories of America.

The nature of war has changed and we are now faced by a science which can be known by a small nation as well as by a great nation. France manufactured an atom bomb; so did little Israel. Automation destroys any monopoly of production. Mass production can be accomplished by small countries as well as by large; automation eliminates the need for enormous industrialized populations. In fact, automation may produce such difficult social problems that larger populations will be disadvantageous.

The Germans have proved after World War II that their intellectual capacity was unimpaired by war and failure. Not only did West Germany succeed in rebuilding a prosperous state with a high and rising economy but it convinced its former adversaries that Germany was an invaluable bastion of Western civilization. It has been said that West Germany could not have achieved such a reconstruction without American aid; the wisdom of Western Germany is made evident in the swift turn-about from Hitlerism to capitalism and the establishment of a government acceptable to its former enemies. The Adenauer-De Gaulle Alliance, personal though it may be, is one of the strongest anti-Russian forces today.

If the writer of Germany's miscalculations was familiar with European history, he would know that for a thousand years, it was the Germans who kept the Slav out of what was historically regarded as Europe. The Teutonic knights, the dukes of Saxony, the Germans fighting in Latvia kept the Slav closed in. Peter the Great foresaw the nature of this struggle between East and West and moved his capital from Moscow to St. Petersburg, now Leningrad, which pushed Russia further into Europe.

World War II was essentially a struggle between Russia and Germany for the domination of the world. Hitler attempted to achieve this objective without war and in 1939, the Molotov-Ribbentrop Pact was arranged. It could not last because both Stalin and Hitler were insincere. Stalin, as a Marxist, could only think in terms of the conquest of the entire world by Marxism-Leninism. He could not tolerate an anti-Marxist force such as Hitler had built. On the other hand, Hitler could not be a true ally of Stalin for the same reasons in reverse. They therefore split and their alliance failed. But Hitler had managed to weaken the Soviet economy.

Hitler's error lay in an utter misunderstanding of the mentality of Franklin D. Roosevelt. There is ample evidence that Roosevelt's principal antagonism was toward British imperialism. As a matter of fact, World War II was being fiercely fought from September 1, 1939 until December 7, 1941 without direct American participation and when the United States did go to war, it was because of the Japanese attack at Pearl Harbor and not because of anything the Germans did. Suppose the Japanese had not attacked at Pearl Harbor, would Roosevelt have found a way to intervene in the war against Germany? If there was such a possibility, why could he not find it prior to Pearl Harbor?

The assumption that the Germans miscalculated is based upon a lack of understanding of the forces that move nations to war. Hitler's principal enemy was Soviet Russia. Any correct reading of history since October 1917 establishes that Soviet Russia had been the enemy of the United States. What is occurring today only substantiates Roosevelt's historic miscalculation.

Bouquets and brickbats:—
From a "mother and a wife who has made an extensive study about health for several years":

"Dear Sir: In answer to your article on Salk Vaccine, I suggest you start reading '... Magazine' and start asking your colleagues about how to prevent polio."

"In 1948 an epidemic broke out in a southern state and the board of health doctor got permission to broadcast one-half hour daily ... to (ask) people to stop giving their children soft drinks, ice cream and candy. This the people did."

"In two weeks there was only three cases whereas thousands were falling to polio (previously)."

"But, of course, this cost the companies over $1,000 in daily losses so the doctor was soon squelched. ... Every corner I turn informs me that there wouldn't be polio, cancer, heart disease and hundreds of other illnesses if people ate right. ..."

"I can see why you do not advocate the correct way of health in your column. I'm sure you're being paid handsomely to keep people ill. After all, there is great profit in sick people."

"I'll turn this information about the prevention of polio over to Dr. Salk, who is neither a wife nor a mother. ..."

From the mother of a member of the USAF: "I can almost hear you snort in disbelief at the idea that association with a chihuahua dog can relieve asthma attacks. I laughed, too, when I first heard of it but my experience has taught me that there is something to it I didn't know."

"My son, now 30 years of age, had asthma really all his life. Upon his return from Korea (he's with the Air Force), a friend told him about chihuahuas and he bought one."

He was having an attack at the time but, before he reached home, the attack was relieved and from that time until he went overseas again he had only one attack.

"Of necessity the dog was left behind, and while overseas he has again had asthma. If that wasn't enough to convince me, my daughter, who also has asthma, got a chihuahua and since we have had it in the home, more than four years, her attacks have been much lighter and less frequent."

"The dogs do not take the disease but something about them relieves the sufferer. So there you are, believe it or not."

Notice to kennel owners: STOCK UP ON CHIHUAHUA. The asthmatics are coming.

WASHINGTON — (NEA) —

The next few weeks should see President Kennedy's Alliance for Progress with Latin America begin to take more definite form.

It is still a pretty fuzzy thing. It has been lost sight of in the excitement over Berlin, Laos and the United Nations crises. But the alliance is an important thing in Western Hemisphere affairs, and it deserves full attention.

Rep. Porter Hardy Jr., D-Va., chairman of a House subcommittee on government operations, has issued a scathing report of waste and inefficiency in a $13 million aid program for Peru. He claims nobody in high office is trying to straighten out the mess.

President Felipe Herrera of Inter-American Bank, Secretary-General Jose A. Mora of Organization of American States, and Executive Secretary Raul Prebisch of the U.N. Economic Commission for Latin America are scheduled to meet early in November.

They'll name the nine-man panel of experts which will review and approve all alliance development plans.

There will be a Latin-American tax reform conference opening in Buenos Aires Oct. 11. Fowler Hamilton has just been sworn in as head of the U.S. foreign aid program which is being reorganized and rechristened Agency for International Development — AID. How much of the Alliance is to be his responsibility has not been determined.

There is a top United States government policy committee on the alliance in State Department headed by Under Secretary George W. Ball. There is a working level operations committee under William V. Turnage, State's economic officer for Latin America.

Today in World AffairsKennedy Makes It Clear U.S. Is Not Backing Down

By DAVID LAWRENCE

WASHINGTON—If the men in Moscow have been under the illusion that the United States isn't determined to stand firm in the current crisis over Berlin, they must have been dismayed by President Kennedy's grim words at his press conference today.

This is a significant way also of advising Moscow that the United States isn't becoming preoccupied by the Berlin crisis and recognizes that there are things to be done in Laos and elsewhere to counter Communist aggression. It was a method of letting the Soviets know that the United States is not willing to give up in Laos either and stands ready there, as it does in West Berlin, to use force if necessary.

In fact, Mr. Kennedy was careful in the choice of words. He said that all the conversations with the Soviets thus far had merely been exploratory—an attempt to define precisely the position of each side—and that this should not be called "negotiations."

This, of course, is a technical use of the word "negotiations," but it has nevertheless a particular purpose at the moment. For the United States government doesn't want to be represented as having advanced any compromise suggestions.

What then did all the conversations of the last ten days mean, and what is meant by the President's statement that the American Ambassador to the Soviet Union, Llewellyn Thompson, is shortly to go from Washington to Moscow to resume talks? Those who are familiar with the history of diplomacy will recognize all this as a device that is used to keep the door open when there's a dispute that shows no signs of being immediately resolved. Indeed, Mr. Kennedy's words undoubtedly intended to reassure the French President that no attempt had been made to carry on "negotiations." Externally, at least, this helps to preserve Allied solidarity.

The country cannot tell from anything Mr. Kennedy said to the press on Wednesday whether or not there's going to be war. But neither can Nikita Khrushchev. One point needs to be stressed. The President of the United States cannot trifl with the security of this country, and the Soviet Premier ought to take a good

Benedictine Has Post-Operative Recovery Room

Edwin B. Bolz, associate administrator of the Benedictine Hospital, announces the opening of the new seven-bed post-operative recovery room. The recovery room is located on the third floor of the north wing of the hospital and is immediately adjacent to the surgical suite.

Bolz stated, "The desirability of providing recovery room services in the hospital for post-anesthesia and post-surgery patients cannot be disputed. In the establishment of this post-operative recovery room, the Benedictine Hospital is keeping pace with progress in the care of the surgical patient in the immediate post-operative period. This new recovery room encompasses all the latest physical aids necessary for patients including the latest type of oxygen therapy, various types of suction, intravenous fluids, etc."

Mrs. Germaine Callahan, R.N., has been appointed the nurse in charge of this new unit. It will be under her direction that a specialized team of nurses and aides will render the very latest in post-operative care to the patients entering the unit."

PSC Blocks Higher Rate for Phone Co.

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP)—The Public Service Commission blocked today plans of the Empire Telephone Corp. of Prattsburgh, Steuben County, to put a $10,500-a-year rate increase into effect Sunday.

The commission ordered a public hearing to be scheduled later, on whether to allow all or part of the proposed increase.

The company proposed to increase monthly rates to 850 subscribers on its East Pembroke exchange by 25 cents to $2 and to 150 customers on its Urbana exchange by 25 cents to $1.

Also proposed was an increase of 25 cents a month for business-extension phones on the Prattsburgh, Pulteney, Lodi and Burdett exchanges.

Suggests Better Pictures Be Sent To Europe Mart

By BOB THOMAS

AP Movie-TV Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Vincent Price is back from six months of European film making with an alarming view of how foreigners judge us by our movies.

Says Price: "Whatever good will Americans have engendered over the years is virtually wiped out by the kind of picture we are sending to Europe nowadays. We used to give them entertainment. Now we send them problems.

"They don't need problems; they've got enough of their own. 'We are giving them a sort of Tennessee Williams' view of America. This is not America as all of us know it."

"But Europeans don't know it, because they judge us by our movies. I had people over there ask me if the United States was undergoing a bad depression. They had gathered so because of our downbeat pictures. It was all I could do to try to convince them that we are more prosperous than ever."

"What has happened to the glamorous movies Hollywood used to make, especially at MGM? They may have been somewhat fanciful, but they were closer to reality than today's downbeat films."

"And they did a better job for us. In those days, every European wanted to come to America. Now they don't."

Price's sentiments coincide with what I encountered on journeys to the Orient and Europe this year. There was puzzlement and dismay over the portrait of America in such films as "I Want to Live," "Butterfield 8," "Inherit the Wind," "Elmer Gantry," "The Fugitive Kind," "The Apartment," etc.

"The ideal picture for us to send abroad is 'Oklahoma!'" Price remarked. "It is cheerful and beautiful and vastly entertaining. True, it doesn't show a picture of contemporary America, but you also judge a nation by its art."

"What we know of ancient Egypt comes from its architecture, its art and its writing. A great deal of how foreigners consider us stems from what kind of art we send them. 'Oklahoma!' is a wonderful example of basically American art form."

Ares, the lover of Aphrodite, was the Greek god of war.

Mother's Guild

Accepts Reports

Mrs. Frances Lardiere, the new president of the Mother's Guild of St. Joseph's Church conducted the recent first fall meeting when reports from the committees were presented and accepted by the members.

At this time the mothers met the Benedictine Sisters and the lay teachers who teach in the parochial school. Sister Joseph, principal, addressed the mothers urging them to continue their splendid efforts on promoting the good and welfare of their children in the care of the Sisters teaching in the various grades. She invited each mother to visit the teacher who had her child in class in order to discuss any complaints that might be received during the school day. She thanked the mothers for furnishing the very latest device, an electronic reading machine — which, she asserted, could improve the reading ability of a student during a school year as much as 50 per cent. All children, she stressed, would be expected to be in uniform early in October.

Three points are to be stressed during the coming year. These are piety, politeness and penmanship. As far as the latter was concerned, stressed Sister Joseph, the Palmer method of writing would be introduced immediately in every class in the school. She also told of a modified form of athletics during the school day. This was met with full approval of the mothers.

A recess followed the meeting when the mothers met with the Sisters and lay teachers informally. The committee in charge served refreshments.

On the weekend of Oct. 20 through Oct. 22, the Post has scheduled a camping trip to Camp Tri-Mount.

Ten Scouts from Troop 175, sponsored by St. Joseph's Church, recently took part in a Junior Leader's training conference at Camp Tri-Mount.

Troop 175 meets at 7 p. m. each Friday at St. Joseph's Center. Twenty-seven boys are registered with this troop comprising Tenderfoot, first, second and third class scouts. An invitation is extended to any boy between the ages of 11 and 14 years to join the troop. All the boys attend the meetings in uniform. Four scoutmasters conduct these meetings. They are: John Bonagura, Robert Bayon, John O'Donnell and Frank Repke. Three committee men acting as advisory council for the Troop are Vincent Adamo, Al Denys and Edward Lee.

Three periods are set aside during the year for a Court of Honor at St. Joseph's auditorium. At the ceremony boys who have advanced in the Scout program are presented with the new insignia of their rank and merit badges they earned during their training period.

Laymen's Sunday To Be Observed At CA Methodist

The annual laymen's day program for the morning worship services Sunday at the Clinton Avenue Methodist Church was announced today by the lay leader of the church, Thomas W. Miller.

Laymen and women have been asked to speak from pulpits in most Methodist churches. Some will be asked to participate in the service in various ways, such as reading the Scriptures, praying and singing.

Participating in the services which will start at 11 a. m. are: James Crist, president of the Intermediate Methodist Youth Fellowship; Patricia Glass, president of the Senior MYF; Floyd S. Wilber, president of the board of trustees; Mrs. Clarence Dederick, president of the Woman's Society of Christian Service; Harold E. Francis, vice president of Methodist Men; and Edgar B. Schepmoes, senior layman of the church, who entered the membership in Sept. 1891, and has completed 70 years of active service.

Mr. Miller, church lay leader, who is also an associate district lay leader and member of several New York Conference boards, will deliver the laymen's day message, entitled You Shall Be My Witnesses.

Today's Business Mirror

By SAM DAWSON

NEW YORK (AP)—You think you have problems? Look at the retailer.

The government says retail sales in September slipped a little from August instead of going up as expected and weren't any better than a year ago although personal income totals are higher.

Worse, the merchant isn't sure yet for just what the consumer is going to turn loose any extra cash may have in his instalment paying routine.

All Kinds of Battles

In retail circles themselves there are all kinds of battles under way, some getting pretty rough.

That oldie, the struggle of downtown stores against the suburban shopping centers, is still very much with us.

The competition of old line stores with discount stores now is being further complicated by the rush of many traditional firms into one form or another of discount selling.

The small store, the single store, still must cut its cloth to fit the rivalry from the big chains.

And there's the age old battle—now more acute than usual perhaps—the competition of various types of retail outlets for a bigger share of the consumer dollar.

Example: Will you spend your money for a new car this fall? For home furnishings? For clothing? Or for better and higher priced foods? Retailers in these special lines would like to know. Each can give you an argument as to why you should give him a bigger share of your spendable income.

Many merchants see better days ahead for their individual firms because of the trend toward diversification.

es—hardly a new thing in the history of merchandising—competition has led to much profit-margin trimming, always in the hope that increased sales volume will make up for it.

At the same time that bargain hunters have been having a field day, the stores have reported another, seemingly contrary trend. Luxury items are selling better, and prices on the rare items are setting records.

Louw Charges Censure

South Africa May Withdraw From UN

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — Stung by an unprecedented censure from the General Assembly, South African Foreign Minister Eric Louw today awaited instructions from his government amid new speculation the republic may quit the United Nations.

Louw angrily charged that the censure of his policy speech by an overwhelming vote of 67-1 was part of a prearranged campaign by African nations to smear his government.

Speech Called Insulting

"We had been forewarned this would happen," Louw declared after a parade of African delegates denounced his speech as insulting to their governments and the African people.

African delegates were infuriated by Louw's charge that many of the African governments were attacking his government to divert attention from appalling economic conditions and illiteracy in their own countries. The Africans also resented his announcement that South Africa would continue its policy of apartheid—strict race segregation—despite the U.N.'s disapproval.

South Africa walked out of the General Assembly six years ago when its white supremacist policies were censured. It has threatened to pull out of the U.N. altogether if pushed too far.

Recalling the warning, delegates noted that this was the first time any U.N. representative had ever been censured for a speech.

Liberia Puts In Motion

The censure motion put in by Liberia labeled Louw's address "offensive, fictitious and erroneous."

South Africa cast the sole negative vote but 20 nations abstained. The United States, Britain, France and six other countries did not participate in the ballot, and three other nations were absent.

Explaining why the United States did not take part in the vote, Ambassador Adlai E. Stevenson said: "While we reject the views of the foreign minister of South Africa on the subject of apartheid and have so stated many times, we resolutely support his right—and the right of every speaker before the General Assembly—to state his views."

Study New Red Plan

In the protracted U.S.-Soviet negotiations over an interim secretary-general to succeed the late Dag Hammarskjold, the United States was studying a new Soviet compromise proposal.

The two big powers had agreed earlier that the secretary-general should have five principal advisers or deputies and that four should be named from the United States, the Soviet Union, Latin America and Asia or Africa. But the Soviet Union wanted the fifth post to go to an East European while the United States held out for a West European.

Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister Valerian A. Zorin proposed on Wednesday that six deputies be named instead of five, providing places for both a West European and East European. Stevenson said he would study the proposal.

Chichester

CHICHESTER—Several friends and neighbors surprised Mrs. Glenn Law Thursday night with a house warming party. She was the recipient of numerous gifts.

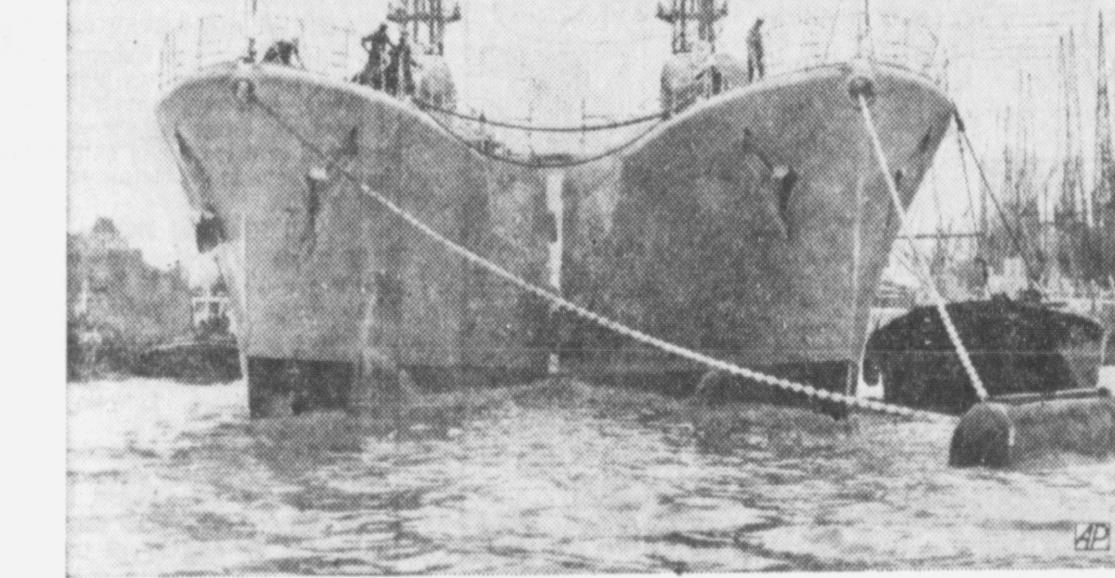

Refreshments were served after the opening of gifts.

A program of sacred music, vocal and instrumental talent from area churches will be presented at the Chichester Wesleyan Methodist Church, today at 8 p.m., sponsored by the Wesleyan Youth Society. The public is invited. Refreshments will be served.

Mrs. Susie Morris and daughter, Hunter visited Mrs. Harold Friedman and family Friday evening.

SK3 Harold Quick who is stationed aboard the USS Essex at Quonset Point, R. I. spent the weekend at his home here.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Ostrander, Mr. and Mrs. George Sweet Jr. and family, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Erickson and Miss Pamela Kirk spent Saturday at the fair in Danbury, Conn.

Dismiss Charges Against Two for Parachute Jump

FISHKILL, N.Y. (AP) — Charges have been dismissed against two Air Force sergeants who were arrested Sept. 17 when they parachuted from a plane here.

Sgt. James Kilcullen, 23, and Sgt. James Redmond, 27, both of Camp Kilmer, N.J., were charged with violating the state Sunday business law.

When they appeared before Justice of Peace Lawrence Hancock Wednesday with a letter from their commanding officer that their jumps were a part of their training, the justice dismissed the charges.

Completes Training

Pvt. Gabrielle Broncato, whose brother, Vincent M. Broncato, lives in Tillson, completed eight weeks of basic military training at the Women's Army Corps Center, Fort McClellan, Ala., Sept. 29.

Private Broncato received instruction in such subjects as Army history and traditions, administrative and supply procedures, map reading, first aid and military justice. She also received aptitude and interest tests to determine the field of work for which she is best suited during her Army career.

Private Broncato has received orders assigning her to Fort Sam Houston, Tex., for advanced individual training at the Army Medical Service School, Brooke Army Medical Center.

GENESEO, N.Y. (AP) — Area civil defense officials said today that they have asked the state for an immediate survey of the huge Retsof salt mines nearby to see whether they can be used as an underground bomb-shelter city.

The mines, the largest salt mines in the Western World, could probably house the population of a city the size of Rochester in a nuclear war, according to Stanley Martin of the International Salt Co., which owns the mines.

Weekly Food Review

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Roast beef takes the top spot this week among weekend specials featured by supermarkets and neighborhood stores.

Mostly widely advertised cuts are top and bottom round, top sirloin rump and cross rib roasts.

Some Pork Features

Veal roasts and cutlets also are on the bargain lists of some big chains.

Hams and Boston cuts are the pork features in some areas.

Pork is among the abundant foods expected to drop in price in the next few weeks. Hog slaughter in November is predicted to exceed September by 20 per cent. Indications are that hog prices will fall below $16 per 100 pounds in Chicago from the present level of $18.50.

Frying and broiling chickens aren't being featured, but they are bargains. Prices are the lowest in 20 years.

Thanksgiving turkeys are expected to be the cheapest in recent years because of a 25 per cent increase in the number of birds raised this year, compared with last year.

Other Best Buys

Fish specialties are halibut steaks, smelts and flounder filet. Best vegetable bargains are potato bunch beets, cabbage, head lettuce, endive, escarole, spinach, squash, pumpkins, and carrots.

Good buys include beans, artichokes, brussels sprouts, mushrooms, cauliflower, eggplant, onions, peppers, sweet potatoes and cucumbers.

Paltz Motorist
Gets Jail Term

A 25-year-old New Paltz man, whose car was involved in a mishap at Routes 9W and 299, Highland, late Sunday night, was sentenced Wednesday by Town of Lloyd Justice of the Peace Louis Canino to 10 days in the Ulster County jail.

Tom Watson Jr., of New Paltz, pleaded guilty to a charge of driving a motor vehicle at a speed not reasonable or prudent and received the jail sentence.

Watson also pleaded guilty to driving a car without a license, operating an unregistered motor vehicle and passing a stop sign. On each of those three charges, Watson received a 10-day suspended jail sentence.

Highland State Troopers Harry Foster and Joseph Clare said the car driven by Watson was traveling east on Route 299 and went straight across Route 9W into a field where it crashed into an embankment.

Two passengers in the car were injured. James Anderson, 48, of New Paltz, received a laceration over the right eye, and Bobby Jones, 26, also of New Paltz, suffered abrasions of the left knee and thigh. Both were treated at Vassar Hospital.

Four Volunteers
Added to Help on
Red Cross Plan

The appointment of four additional volunteers to assist with the home service program in the local Red Cross Chapter was announced today by Dr. Herbert F. Schwartz, chapter chairman. Mrs. Robert Boyle, Mrs. James Dwyer, Mrs. Bernard A. Feeney Jr. and Mrs. James A. Hanstein will serve evenings and weekends in verifying emergency situations that arise in the families of servicemen. Also serving in this charter responsibility of the chapter are: Mrs. Arthur Foehser, Mrs. William T. Fuller, Mrs. Robert Keefe, Mrs. Albert Kurtz, Mrs. Henry Parker, Mrs. Robert Shellenberger, Mrs. Donald Snell and Mrs. Charles VanGordon.

Home service in the Ulster County Red Cross Chapter is a fulltime, 24-hour-a-day job. Ninety per cent of the cases are emergencies and must be taken care of immediately, according to Dr. Schwartz. This may deal with illness or death in the serviceman's family, causing the chapter to verify the situation to enable the military authorities to make a decision regarding an emergency leave.

Have you ever heard of a state called Franklin? Or Vandalia, Transylvania, or Westsylvania? You would have, if certain pioneer planners had their way. When Virginia settlers crossed the Alleghenies, they clamored for their own new states—and these were among the suggestions. Along with these strange names were two more familiar ones—the modern states of Kentucky and West Virginia.

Lowe Won't Seek Ulster Fire Job

At the meeting of Ulster Hose Company, No. 5, Town of Ulster, this week it was announced that Chief Harry Lowe would not seek re-election as chief at the November 13 meeting when election of officers will take place.

Chief Lowe insists that the position of chief should be handed down to other members of the department, rather than be retained by one person. This plan promotes interest among members and stimulates interest in fireman affairs in the company. Lowe maintained in announcing that he would not seek re-election.

President Robert E. Metscher appointed Nicholas Valenzano as chairman of the Halloween party which will be held at the Chambers School under sponsorship of the fire company. The party will be on Tuesday, Oct. 31, from 7 to 9 p.m. There will be free donuts and sweet cider and a program of games. There will be 12 prizes awarded with the grand prize being a $25 Savings Bond.

A resolution was adopted by the fire company making Edward Dingleday an honorary member of the company. For six years Dingleday was president of Ulster Hose Company No. 5, and is past president of the Chambers School board. While a resident of the Town of Ulster he was active in town and local civic affairs. He is now a resident of Florida.

Chief Lowe reported the company had responded to two fires since the last meeting, one a car fire at Trailer Haven and one a space heater in a house trailer in Glenorie Park area.

Kennedy to Get Degree, Observe Airborne Troops

CHAPEL HILL, N.C. (AP) — President Kennedy flew to North Carolina today to receive his 21st honorary degree, make a speech and watch airborne troops demonstrate their readiness for combat.

Kennedy arrived at nearby Raleigh-Durham Airport at 10:27 a.m. (EST) where he made a brief speech to open the North Carolina Trade Fair at Charlotte. His airport talk was recorded for dispatch to Charlotte and broadcast at the fair's opening ceremony.

Kennedy was to travel to Chapel Hill in a motorcade to receive the honorary degree and speak at the University of North Carolina's Kenan Stadium. The sky was clear and the temperature was in the mid 60s.

University President William C. Friday and Chancellor William B. Aycock waited at Chapel Hill to introduce Kennedy to an anticipated crowd of about 33,000 and present him the honorary law degree at convocation exercises.

Kennedy previously has received 19 honorary doctorates in law and one in science.

The chief executive's program called for leaving Chapel Hill just before noon for the hop to Ft. Bragg. He was scheduled to land at Pope Air Force Base, a part of the military reservation, at about 12:50 p.m.

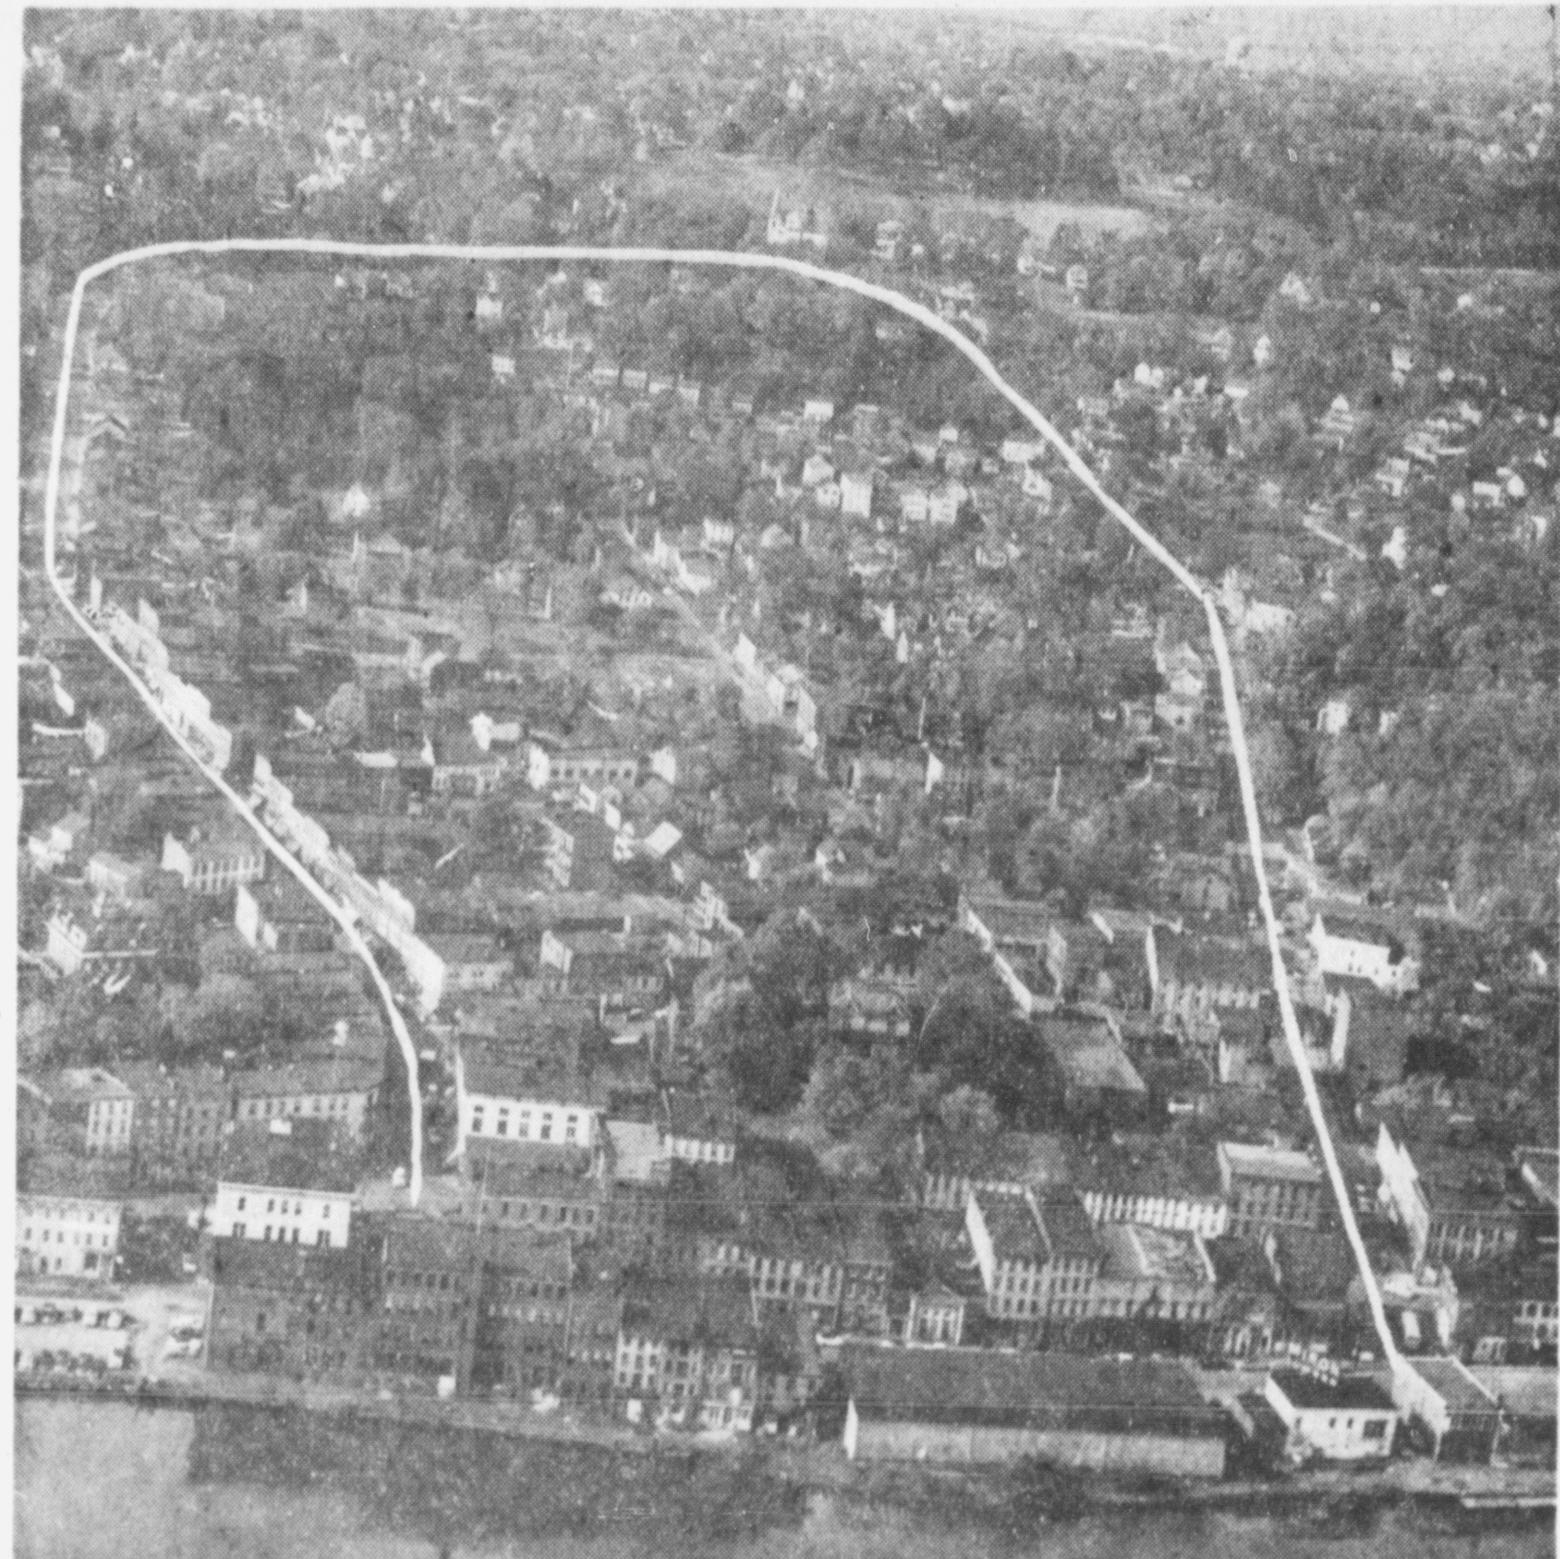

Bourguiba Lays Down Proviso to Any Paris Pact

TUNIS (AP) — President Habib Bourguiba demanded today that France agree to the principle of quitting its giant Bizerte base. He laid this down as a condition before Tunisia will sign any political or economic agreement with the French.

Bourguiba did not specify any date for the "eventual withdrawal."

Last month, in an effort to end the bitter crisis between Tunisia and France, Bourguiba proposed France keep the strategic base for the duration of the Berlin crisis.

Subsequently, France moved its troops from the city of Bizerte—which it has seized during the fighting in July—back to the half a dozen military installations forming the giant base.

Trades Council

Trades Council that all necessary procedures have been followed as expeditiously as possible, and it is our further opinion that Mayor Radel and the present board of aldermen, and the various city agencies are to be highly commended for the advancement of a plan that will be of utmost value to the city in years to come."

Based on the above program, it said, the council "endorses the record of Mayor Radel and recommends his re-election as mayor of the city, and also recommends the re-election of every city alderman who voted in favor of city planning and urban renewal."

To Make Campaign

The council also said it "pledged itself to cooperate with all agencies and committees on all matters affecting the higher education of the children of our communities," and is "in favor of creating a community college for Ulster County, and requests all of its members in Ulster County to vote 'yes' on the proposition on Election Day, Nov. 7."

It also requested each member "to use every effort to induce his friends, his associates, and his neighbors to support the proposition by voting 'yes' on election day. We cannot afford to lose this opportunity to create our own college."

A recent Middletown report indicated procedure in the more advanced phases of urban renewal, when it noted Common Council action accepting a bid for razing 48 buildings in a "renewal area." The price quoted was $30,440.

To Sign Cease-Fire

Elisabethville, Katanga (AP)—Katanga President Moise Tshombe expects to sign a permanent cease-fire agreement with the United Nations tonight, a semi-official statement in an Elisabethville paper said today.

The agreement would officially end the U.N. attempt to bring secessionist Katanga back under control of the central Congo government by force.

Fighting was suspended after a temporary cease-fire was reached Sept. 20.

Jury to Get Ex-Chorine's Big Burglary Case Monday

Two of the three men allegedly hired to crack the safe, Robert Poulsen, 26, and John Berkery, 30, were convicted in the case last spring as was Ralph Staino Jr., 28, manager of Miss Reis' club.

Third Man Found Dead

A third alleged safecracker, Vincent Blaney, 26, was found shot to death in August 1960, in what police said was a gangland killing to keep him from turning state's evidence.

The stormy 16-day trial produced unusual testimony and led the prosecution to plead surprise on testimony of its own witnesses.

Judge Charles W. Staudenmeier said he plans to charge the jury Monday.

Recess Today

After the judge's charge, the panel of five women and seven men will deliberate the shapely blonde's fate.

The trial is in recess because of Columbus Day, a court holiday. It will resume Friday, during which time the prosecution and defense will deliver their summations, then recess. Judge Charles W. Staudenmeier decided not to charge the jury until Monday because summations may cover an extended period.

The defense rested Wednesday. The final defense witness was Miss Reis' estranged husband, Michael Corabi, 42, who said he once helped her count nearly $30,000 in cash in September 1958.

Corabi's testimony was aimed at discounting the prosecution's contention that Miss Reis hired three men to crack the safe of John B. Rich, a wealthy Pottsville coal operator, on Aug. 7, 1959, then used part of the money to purchase a night club where she once danced.

Taylor's Mission

Elisabethville, Katanga (AP)—Soviet Ambassador Panteleimon K. Ponomarenko, who was involved in an airport fracas with Dutch police over the defection of a Soviet scientist, flew to Moscow today.

As the President discussed the Southeast Asian and Berlin situations in response to news conference questions, the impression grew among his hearers that he is grappling with the complex and interlocking problems of crises on two fronts.

Other administration officials said his decisions on Southeast Asia when Taylor returns can hardly be made without consideration of American force commitments and possible further needs in the East-West dispute over Berlin.

The President himself gave a universal significance to the problems of war and peace in today's world by referring to the destructive potential of any conflict that leads into the use of nuclear weapons.

Ponomarenko told newsmen he expected to be back in Amsterdam in two weeks, after the 22nd Congress of the Soviet Communist party.

"Our ambition is to protect our vital interests without a war," he said. "We happen to live in the

Paar Signs NBC Pact, Will Have New Fall Show

NEW YORK (AP)—Jack Paar, one of television's most controversial personalities, has signed a new contract with the National Broadcasting Co. There had been numerous hints from Paar himself that he wanted to leave the show.

In announcing the new contract today, NBC said Paar would continue with his current nighttime show until March 30. Then, next fall, he will begin a weekly series of programs to be aired in the prime evening hours.

Paar had said he wanted to leave the show at the end of the year, pointing out the amount of work involved in performing four nights a week from 11:15 p.m. until 1 a.m. His old contract would have lasted until next fall.

"The new program will be live and in color," NBC's announcement said. "Its format will be comparable to the present 'Jack Paar Show,' with big-name guest attractions."

The network said the present late-night program emceed by Paar will be continued with someone else, to be named later, as host.

NBC did not say how long the contract would run and gave no indication of its financial terms.

'Below Belt' Acts Charged to Wagner

NEW YORK (AP)—A Republican party official said today that Democrats who criticized business firm advertisements in a GOP journal had solicited and obtained advertisements from the same firms.

William L. Pfeiffer, treasurer of the GOP state committee, said Democratic State Chairman Michael H. Prendergast solicited the advertisements in a letter dated July 25.

Pfeiffer accused Mayor Robert F. Wagner of "below-the-belt political campaigning" through implications concerning advertisements in the Republican yearbook.

Wagner, a Democrat seeking re-election Nov. 7, had charged that many of the advertisers did business with the state and that the ads had the earmarks of a shakedown.

Pfeiffer said advertising in party yearbooks is "a legitimate activity engaged in by both political parties."

Saccommans Plans 5 Changes if He Is Made City Judge

Addressing about 200 independent voters at a meeting Tuesday night at the Moose Hall, Joseph D. Saccommans, candidate for city judge, said he would seek five improvements to city court procedures, if elected, at no additional cost to the taxpayers.

Terming the city court "the front line of justice" and the place "where the average man with legal difficulties most often seeks just remedies," Saccommans outlined his five proposals as follows:

1—An increase in the monetary jurisdiction of small claims court from the present limit of $100.

On that proposal Saccommans said: "As the cost of living rises, it becomes quite apparent that the sum of $100 no longer can be considered a small claim. Yet, the purpose of a small claims court is to permit people to seek recovery of minor damages without incurring legal expenses, which in some cases, cost as much as the judgment awarded them. Therefore, to reflect this economic fact of life, I would take steps to have the limit of small claims jurisdiction raised to truly reflect present day economic conditions."

2—Issuance of execution on small claims judgments by city court.

On that point, Saccommans said: "When a small claim judgment is awarded, it is often necessary to retain a lawyer to secure collection of the judgment at additional expense. This additional expense would be minimized considerably were the clerk of the city court empowered to issue an execution at the plaintiff's request."

3—Formation of a clergyman's advisory committee to counsel couples appearing in city court on charges resulting from matrimonial difficulties.

Commenting on that proposal, the candidate said: It is my belief that the goal of justice is a stable society of equal right, and that punishment is only one tool of the court system. In the case of many matrimonial conflicts that erupt into violence and end up in city court, I feel that the goal of the court should be to achieve a solution of the problems and conflicts that cause matrimonial disturbances. For this reason, I would utilize the probationary powers of the city court to induce married couples to seek counsel from a member of a committee of qualified clergymen of all faiths.

4—Institution of a rehabilitation program for repeat traffic offenders.

On that point, Saccommans said: "I am also convinced that the imposition of fines alone, is not sufficient to develop safe driving habits. Therefore, I would seek to have established a safe driving school for repeat offenders, and use the probationary powers of the city court to insure attendance and attention to the course. In this manner, I believe that many repeat offenders, who commit traffic violations through unfamiliarity rather than disrespect of the laws, can be reminded and refreshed as to the rules of safe and responsible driving."

5—Maintain a continuing study of the city court and its administration.

On this proposal, Saccommans said: "I believe that the administration of justice must meet the pace and needs of the times. In order to keep the city court abreast of modern demands, I would carry out a complete and continuing appraisal of its administration and policies."

Joseph J. Quatere, chairman of the Independent Committee for Joseph D. Saccommans for City Judge, presided at the meeting.

National Jaycees Start Preventable Accidents Drive

The United States Junior Chamber of Commerce today declared war on drivers involved in normally preventable accidents.

National president Robert Conger said the Jaycees, in cooperation with Liberty Mutual Insurance Company, will conduct a coast-to-coast campaign urging the nation's 70,000,000 motorists to "Avoid It-only Driving."

In preparation for the campaign, two tons of program guides and literature are being mailed this week from national headquarters in Tulsa, Okla., to the 4,000 Jaycee chapters throughout the United States. The program kits will aid chapter officers in setting up local campaigns to spotlight If-Only drivers between now and next summer.

Conger explained that an If-Only driver is one who could have prevented an accident, if he had driven as he should.

GOP Offices Opened

The Rosendale Republican Club officially opened its headquarters Tuesday night at 9 Main Street. George Weis, chairman of the reception committee, has issued a cordial invitation to the public to inspect the quarters.

It took the South Sea Islanders to teach Western man how to swim effectively. For centuries Hawaiians and Solomon Islanders have been doing the crawl—the world's fastest, most efficient swimming stroke. A young Australian introduced it to the Western world about 1900. A newspaper account said he seemed literally to "crawl" over the water—and we've called it the crawl ever since.

Pilot With Broken Hip Rescued After Ordeal of 4 Days

ALPINE, Utah (AP) — A pilot who huddled four days near the wreckage of his plane with a broken hip was rescued in sub-freezing temperatures early today from a snow-covered mountain side.

Rescue crews slogged through three miles of knee-deep snow to bring out Joel T. Honey, 52, of Needles, Calif., pilot of a single-engine craft that slammed into rugged Mt. Timpanogos in central Utah Saturday.

The crash killed William Royal, 52, of Needles.

When rescuers got to Honey, they heard an amazing story of a man crawling around in snowstorms with a broken hip in order to keep alive.

At times Honey said he heard search planes flying overhead, but he couldn't attract their attention. He crawled painfully from the smashed plane to soak rags with gasoline and tie them on sticks to be used as flares.

He even packed snowballs in the hope he could roll them down the slope below to attract attention.

West Park Man Seeks $6,000 for Crossing Mishap

Russell Benn of West Park has brought an action to recover damages for injuries which he received when his car was struck by a West Shore engine at a private crossing on January 20, 1957. Trial of the action was commenced Wednesday afternoon before Supreme Court Justice William Deckelman and a jury.

Benn alleges the conditions at the crossing on the morning of the accident constitute negligence. The railroad contends it was not negligent and that Benn contributed to the accident by operating his car over the private roadway when it was covered with ice.

Joseph D. Hill and Charles Gaffney, as trial counsel, appear for the plaintiff and Vincent G. Connely of Connely & Connely appear for the railroad.

Car Slides Down

The accident happened about 7:30 a. m. as Benn was driving from his home, the only house on the private roadway, to work. As he approached the viaduct which carries Route 9W over the tracks, the roadway was icy and when a short distance away he applied his brake, the car slid down under the viaduct with the front wheels on the roadway which was free from snow and ice but the rear wheels remained on the ice. He was unable to move his car.

The train bound for Weehawken and drawn by two engines struck the car from which Benn was attempting to escape. He suffered arm, leg and ankle injuries as well as a head laceration and injury. Later he was operated on at a hospital.

Railroad's Contention

He alleges medical bills amounted to some $6,000 and seeks to recover that sum plus damages for his injuries, which he alleges are permanent.

Excessive speed is one of the elements of negligence charged against the railroad as well as improper maintenance at the crossing. The railroad alleges Benn was responsible for the accident in that he left his home to travel over the road when the road was a "glare of ice," and alleges the engineer sounded his whistle at that and the public West Park crossing and when it was observed the Benn car was in difficulty, the engineer placed his train in emergency condition and stopped some 1,000 or 1,500 feet below the scene of the accident. The engineer claims he was proceeding less than 50 miles an hour when he approached the scene.

Shoots Kin, Kills Self

LANESBORO, Pa. (AP) — An unemployed man critically wounded his 19-year-old stepson today and then killed himself with a shotgun, police said.

Nelson Glover, 43, died two hours after the shooting in the Glover home. His stepson, James Brennan, underwent surgery in Binghamton, N.Y., General Hospital for a shotgun wound in the stomach.

No motive for the shooting was established.

Why do cocker spaniels tend to crouch when threatened? This meek-looking gesture isn't a sign of cowardice. It is a habit bred into cockers by hunters during the Middle Ages. After a cocker spotted birds, hunters would come up behind with a net which they threw over the dog and birds.

Dutchess Board To Study School Evacuation Plan

Beacon's Board of Education agreed to meet in workshop sessions to discuss the school's civil defense procedures after Dr. Charles Wolf, board president, said that observance of present plans "could be disastrous."

The procedure would include a go-home plan for children, if time permitted, and taking shelter in interior corridors and basements in schools by children living too far from school to be taken home.

Honey told his rescuers he remembered Royal had become frightened as the plane dipped and swerved through the overcast mountains Saturday, hunting an opening into clear sky.

Honey said Royal made a grab for the control stick and, moments later, the plane plunged into a stand of trees on the mountain.

The crash occurred at the 8,500-foot level of the 12,000-foot mountain. Nearly two dozen searchers began climbing the slope Wednesday night. Two paramedics parachuted into the crash site.

main in school for an extended period.

The Beacon board noted that Martin S. Donovan, civil defense director of the Town of Wappinger, Fishkill and East Fishkill, warned the Wappinger board that the only real safety lay in shelters in the schools. Donovan is radiation safety coordinator at the Texas Research Center.

Believe Burglars Discarded Cartons

Empty cigarette cartons found on the lawn of a neighbor are believed to have been discarded there by burglars who robbed Economy Discount Sales, Lucas Avenue. Extension of $2,725 in merchandise and loot sometime last Monday night or early Tuesday.

The Sheriff's Department said Henry Harries operator of the store, reported the theft of cigarettes valued at $2,310; camera films worth $100; shotgun and rifle shells to the value of $200 and $15 in cash.

County Investigator Arthur Brown and Deputy Sheriff Thomas Mayone are investigating.

Would Depend on Time

Under the school plan reported at recent board meeting, the decision on whether and how many children to send home would be made when the alert was sounded and would depend on the time available before fallout was estimated.

The plan contained no provision for providing uncontaminated water and food for the children should they be forced to remain in school for an extended period.

Sad Voyage for 260

Islanders Sail For Cape Town

CAPE TOWN, South Africa (AP) — The entire population of volcano-stricken Tristan da Cunha sailed sadly toward the 20th century today.

The Dutch liner Tssadane Wednesday night rescued the 260 men, women and children who had fled the island for refuge on nearby Nightingale Island, an uninhabited rock, after Tristan was shaken by earthquakes and volcanic eruptions.

The liner is expected at Cape Town Tuesday.

The Tristanians wept on bidding farewell to their primitive homeland in the South Atlantic where they have lived an 18th century existence virtually cut off from the rest of the world.

An official of the British Embassy in Pretoria is flying here to arrange for the transportation of the islanders to England. Only about a dozen of the islanders had ever left Tristan before; the rest have never seen a train, automobile or town.

Officials said it would not be safe for anyone to touch foot on the island until at least 10 days after the eruptions end.

There was some doubt whether the 42-square mile island—covered mostly by a 7,640-foot volcano—ever would be habitable again.

Transit Session Set

HARTFORD, Conn. (AP) — The Tri-State Transportation Committee, which was formed to promote joint action on easing transportation into and out of New York City, will hold its first meeting here Oct. 20.

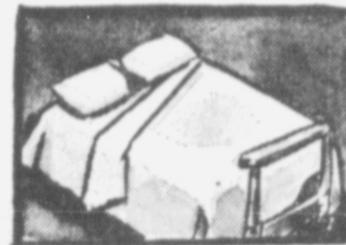

The problems of the New Haven Railroad will be a principal topic. Officials from Connecticut, New York, and New Jersey comprise the committee. In addition, there is a "local cooperating committee" in each of these three states made up of local officials in municipalities affected by regional transportation problems.

Governors of all three states announced the first meeting Wednesday.

Neither Side Happy With Compromise

Maritime Strike Ends With Three-Year Pact

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—A two-week deck officers strike that idled 44 ships along the West Coast has ended.

Spokesmen for the Masters, Mates and Pilots Union and for the shippers, represented by the Pacific Maritime Association, credited U.S. Undersecretary of Labor Willard Wirtz with bringing the two sides together.

Wirtz called it a compromise. Neither side seemed very happy with the settlement.

The union voted 335-252 to return to work today. The three-year contract still is subject to a referendum of the union membership.

Most of the ships idled were not expected to sail until Friday because today is Columbus Day.

Both sides agreed to negotiate further on six issues, including such key items as pension plan revisions and establishment of a mechanization fund.

The deck officers reportedly asked a 15 per cent increase and a one-year contract while the shippers offered an 11 per cent increase in a four-year contract. Current pay and fringes range from $14,000 to $27,500 a year.

Spreading of work was a principal result of Wednesday's agreement. Masters will get 90 days vacation a year, an increase of 20 days. Relief crews will be hired out of union halls, instead of from smaller ships. Casual workers, who had been getting no vacation, will get five days of vacation a month.

Port relief officers and ships officers will receive $3.89 an hour for night relief work in U.S. ports whether or not cargo is involved.

No other wage figures were announced.

Health and welfare payments for each man will be increased

C of C Directors Will Take Action On Amendments

The State Legislative Affairs Committee of the Kingston Area Chamber of Commerce will recommend specific action to the Board of Directors on several of the constitutional amendments to appear on the general election ballot in November.

The committee met last week and carefully reviewed the text of the seven proposed amendments. H. Irving Etchells, chairman of this legislative committee, will report on each and explain the recommended actions.

If approved by the Board of Directors, the stand taken will represent the official position of the local Chamber of Commerce.

In making this announcement today, Etchells urged that every voter study each of the seven amendments and vote on each one election day.

The subject of each of the seven amendments to appear on the ballot is as follows:

No. 1—Establishes a simplified statewide court system. Provides for a reorganization of the State court system.

No. 2—Provides for 20 civil administrative departments in the State Government and gives general authority to change names and prescribe powers and duties of the departments. This is the basic administrative reorganization amendment proposed in the Governor's reorganization plan.

No. 3—Authorizes State guarantee of $100 million of bonds issued by the Port of New York Authority to finance purchase of rolling stock used in passenger transportation by commuter railroads.

No. 4—Permits State guarantee of $50 million of bonds issued by the New York Job Development Authority. The Authority would make partial loans to local Industrial Development groups to help get new industries.

No. 5—Amends the Constitution to permit submission of proposals for debt incurrence for two or more specific purposes during periods of recession. This is known as the "public works stockpile" amendment.

No. 6—Permits the State guarantee of bonds up to $500 million issued by the New York State College Buildings Authority. This is part of the State's program of increased state aid to higher education.

No. 7—Permits the State to take a limited amount of forest preserve lands for straightening and improving State Highway No. 10 in Hamilton County. This type of referendum will appear frequently as long as the present "forever wild" provisions of our State Constitution remains as inflexible as at present.

The text of each of the seven amendments to be voted upon is available at the office of the Ulster County Board of Elections, 74 John Street.

$12.9 Million Is Expected Credit For Congo Plan

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—

—Informed sources said today the United States would announce soon an additional credit of $12.9 million for the financially hard-pressed U.N. Congo operation.

This will bring to almost $100 million the total contributed by the United States since the Congo crisis flared in mid-1960.

The latest contribution will be in the form of needed goods and supplies, the informants said.

Thus far the United States has paid $68,299,272 in assessments for the U.N. Congo operation and $17,950,000 in voluntary contributions to the economic fund.

The Soviet bloc countries, France and South Africa have announced they will not put any money into the U.N. Congo operation.

Democrat Pike Has Drive for GOP Papers

WASHINGTON (AP)—Tongue-in-cheek, Rep. Otis G. Pike, D-N.Y., is supplying Republican newspapers in his district with ammunition to use against him in next year's campaign. He's even provided them with a slogan.

Pike said he is sending his "quick-reference-blast - Pike" kit to 35 weekly Republican newspapers who opposed him in 1960.

It includes his voting record in Congress and a suggestion that opponents pick a couple of votes which were "sure losers" and lean heavily on them.

For a campaign slogan against him, Pike suggested:

"There's something fishy about Pike."

Soviets Say U. S. Plans S. Viet Nam Invasion

MOSCOW (AP)—The Soviet Union charged today the United States is planning an aggressive invasion of South Viet Nam and said this would lead to serious consequences in Southeast Asia.

A special commentary on Radio Moscow claimed the aim of alleged American troop movements was two-pronged—to shore up the regime of South Vietnamese President Ngo Dinh Diem and to frighten neighboring Laos away from its neutrality.

The commentary, obviously representing the views of the Soviet government but without the force of an official note, was read by Andrei Baturin. He is a well-known radio spokesman on matters of Soviet foreign policy.

Town Asks State To Erect Lights At Interchange

state make a study and install lights.

On motion of Justice of the Peace Arthur A. Reilly, Supervisor Alexander J. Banyo was authorized to send a letter to the State Department of Public Works calling attention to the condition of Route 9W near its junction with the Kingston-Rhinecliff bridge road where construction is now underway.

It will be suggested that the condition sets in.

A resolution was passed authorizing the erection of a light on Lucas Avenue at its junction with Lakeview Avenue where it is deemed the intersection should be lighted to eliminate a hazardous condition.

Supervisor Banyo and Town Engineer Robert Coonrad were authorized to attend a meeting in New York City with government officials to discuss the questions of obtaining federal funds for a comprehensive study and plan for water and sewage disposal system in the township. No date has been set for the meeting but a preliminary survey is being made by the town engineer to gather sufficient facts to be presented at the meeting so that the matter may be thoroughly presented at that time.

The next meeting of the town board will be held on November 8. Prior to the monthly meeting of the board that evening at 7:30 p.m. at Grange Hall on the 1961-62 town budget.

Health Pamphlets Are Available

ALBANY, Oct. 12—The coming of fall can pose many special health problems, Dr. Herman E. Hilleboe, State Health Commissioner, said today. "In addition to the usual increases in certain communicable diseases, problems also develop concerning accidents in and around the home," he said.

The State Health Department has several publications dealing with these health problems. Among the publications are:

Prevent Child Poisonings —

Describes the problem and suggests ways in which parents can minimize the child poisoning problem in the home.

Stairway to Safety—This publication offers many suggestions for eliminating accident hazards in the home.

Other State Health Department pamphlets of particular interest at this time of year are:

Influenza, Triple Vaccine,

Whooping Cough, Mumps,

Measles, The Common Cold and Strep Throat.

Copies of these publications are available without cost to residents of New York State from city and county health departments, district health offices and the Office of Public Health Education, 84 Holland Avenue, Albany 8, N. Y.

Says Two Parties Think

Alike on Draft Time

BONN, Germany (AP)—Defense Minister Franz Josef Strauss said today the two parties expected to form West Germany's new government have agreed to lengthen the period of service for draftees in the armed forces.

Strauss said this probably meant that starting next year draftees in the army, navy and air force would serve 18 months instead of the present 12. He said agreement had been reached on an extension but there remained some slight doubt about how much.

The defense minister told a meeting of fellow Christian Democratic Bundestag (Parliament) members that Chancellor Konrad Adenauer and the Free Democratic party chairman, Erich Mende, decided on the longer service in their negotiations for a new coalition government.

Seek Missing Girl

Poughkeepsie police have sent out 13-state alarm seeking information as to the whereabouts of 18-year-old Linda Williams, 92 Mansion Street. She has been missing since Sunday. Police Lieutenant Joseph Davidson said.

The latest contribution will be in the form of needed goods and supplies, the informants said.

Thus far the United States has paid $68,299,272 in assessments for the U.N. Congo operation and $17,950,000 in voluntary contributions to the economic fund.

The Soviet bloc countries, France and South Africa have announced they will not put any money into the U.N. Congo operation.

Saugerties PPA Delays Meeting To Halt Rumble

Saugerties Village Police Department attending a meeting of the Police Protective Association Wednesday night responded in force and broke up a teenage rumble on Jane Street involving some 10 boys in the 14 to 16 age range, who reportedly were in disagreement over the ownership of two bicycles.

Police Commissioner George Terpening and Chief Arthur W. Richter headed the group. Two 16-year-old Centerville youths were arrested for disorderly conduct when they reportedly failed to heed the warning of police officers to clear the area.

Maurice Luther and Thomas Abrahamsen were fined $10 each by Village Police Justice G. Thomas Rea Jr. The incident was reported at about 8:30 p. m.

When the commissioner and police officers returned to the meeting, they reelected Donald Sullivan, president of PPA; John Washburn, vice president; Gordon Keeley, secretary, and Edward Sweeney, treasurer.

The group voted to donate $50 to Saugerties Youth Council to defray the expenses of the council for the annual Halloween parade and dance on Oct. 31.

Pamphlet Explains Servicemen's Help

The New York State Division of Veterans Affairs has recently released a new pamphlet entitled, "The New York State Soldiers' and Sailors' Civil Relief Act," according to Charles L. Culver, local counselor for the Division and John B. Tyler of the Ulster County Veterans Service Agency.

This new publication describes the protection afforded servicemen with respect to mortgage and installment payments, life insurance premiums, taxes and rent liability among other things.

Copies of the new pamphlet may be obtained at the New York State Division of Veterans Affairs and the Ulster County Veterans Service Agency office at 32 Main Street, or by writing direct to the New York State Division of Veterans Affairs, Research and Publicity Unit, 155 Washington Avenue, Albany 10.

42-Pound Snake Is Killed on Tampa Street

TAMPA, Fla. (AP)—A 42-pound cottonmouth killed on a Tampa subdivision street has prompted residents to seek aid from county officials to do something about what they termed an invasion of vipers.

Gene J. Gauthier said he plans to circulate a petition in his neighborhood asking the county to do something about the problem.

The 5-foot-4 cottonmouth turned up in the middle of a street Sunday night. Gauthier killed it.

Other residents said they had killed several snakes also. Gauthier said the snakes come from a wooded area bordering the subdivision.

State CD Chief Accepts Bid to Supervisor Parley

An invitation extended to Lt. Gen. Francis W. Farrell, state director of Civil Defense, by the Ulster County Board of Supervisors has been accepted and the State Civil Defense Director will attend the next meeting of the board Oct. 19.

At the September meeting of the board the matter of fallout shelters was brought up, and because of the recent renewal of interest in atomic fallout shelters and other matters pertaining to Civil Defense, it was moved that an invitation be extended to State Director Farrell to attend the next meeting when the matters could be discussed and information gained at first hand.

The board also issued an invitation to Major H. Edgar Timmerman, Ulster County Civil Defense Director.

Today Major Timmerman said Lt. General Farrell had accepted the board's invitation and would be present at the meeting next Thursday, Oct. 19. The regular meeting, scheduled for Thursday, October 12, was postponed because of the Columbus Day holiday.

WASHINGTON (AP)—The November draft call for 20,000 men, all ticketed for the Army, is the same as the one for October. The call, issued Wednesday, compares with the 25,000 drafted in September.

Court Directs Two to Attend Church Service

Two Town of Wappinger youths must attend church services as a condition of probation imposed by Town of Poughkeepsie Justice of the Peace George Dietz, after the youths pleaded guilty to petty larceny charges.

Donald Pectel, 18, and Gerald Davis, 21, both of the Town of Wappinger, admitted the theft of $11 from a milk vending machine on Vassar Road.

Judge Dietz sentenced each to 120 days in the Dutchess County jail, but suspended sentence and placed both youths on probation for two years.

The judge ordered Davis and Pectel to affiliate with a church of their selection and told them to have the pastor of the church report to him of their attendance.

In addition, the judge directed the youths to be home each night by 11 p. m., obtain employment and make restitution for the milk machine theft.

Driver Appears After Accident, Gone 12 Hours

STORMVILLE, N.Y. (AP)—The driver of a tractor-trailer which crashed into a utility pole while descending Stormville Mountain Road early Wednesday, has identified himself as Charles Dollaway, 33, of Middletown.

The driver was missing for 12 hours after the accident in Dutchess County.

Dollaway, when he showed up, said his brakes failed and he purposely drove off the road into the pole. He suffered a minor abrasion.

He did not say where he had been during the hours after the accident.

The tractor-trailer was carrying a generator commonly used by carnivals to create power. The vehicle was owned by the M. and R. Equipment Co. of Middletown.

Is Farmer's Turn Now With Fete For Sen. Keating

WASHINGTON (AP)—The tables are being turned on Sen. Kenneth B. Keating, R-N.Y.

Keating staged a senatorial luncheon last summer for William T. Smith, the Big Flats, N.Y., farmer who protested the government's farm programs by buying a Cadillac with his feed grain subsidy.

Smith is now a prime mover in organizing a breakfast to be given by the Farm Bureau and Grange during Keating's visit to Chemung County, Oct. 17-18. Keating is the scheduled speaker at a county Republican dinner Oct. 17 and plans to attend the farm breakfast at Big Flats the next morning.

BUFFALO, N.Y. (AP)—An assistant professor at the University of Buffalo medical school is opposed to "kiddie cocktails" and tolerance of excessive drinking that could lead to alcoholism among teen-agers.

Dr. Marvin A. Block, told the New York State Nurses Association convention Wednesday that children should not be treated like small adults and not be allowed to take part in adult activities.

Kiddie cocktails, Dr. Block said, were fruit juices or soft drinks served children at cocktail time.

Who ever heard of anyone being alert before his second cup of coffee," Sister Charles Marie said.

A long rest in the morning shortens the day for the incapacitated sick persons, she pointed out.

lic health nurses and school nurses, he said, were in especially good positions to uncover alcoholics.

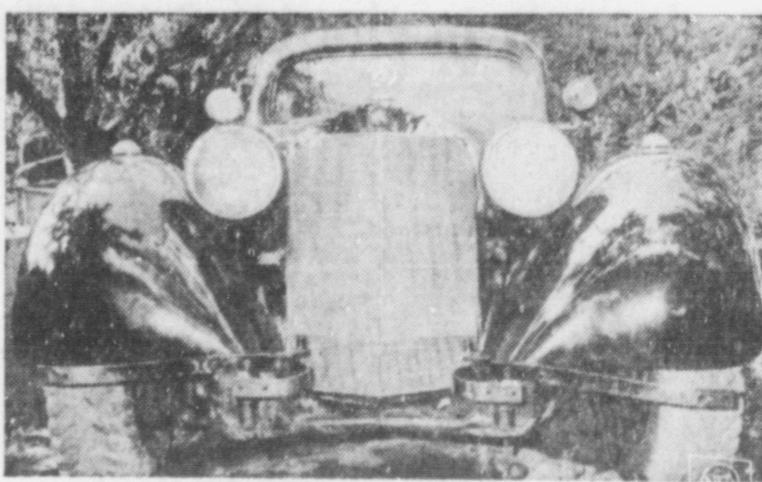

Dr. Block said the average age among alcoholics has dropped recently from the 45-50 group to 35-40 and said there has been an increasing number in the 25-35 age group.

In another address, Sister Charles Marie, dean of the Catholic University of America's school of nursing, suggested more rest time for patients and hospital personnel.

She said hours of hospital service should be altered to conform with modern living.

"Who ever heard of anyone being alert before his second cup of coffee," Sister Charles Marie said.

KANSAS CITY (AP)—A charge of manslaughter by motor car was filed Wednesday against an Independence, Mo., man in the death of Chauncey Gaylord Stearns, a 17-year-old Future Farmers of America convention delegate, of Cazenovia, N.Y.

Lloyd M. Jarmin, 35, was released on $4,000 bond for appearance Oct. 19.

Stearns and four other New York FFA youths were struck by Jarmin's car Tuesday night as they walked single file along U.S. Highway 40 from their motel to a bowling alley.

About 10 carloads of ties will be needed to replace the damaged ties.

Eight-Day Run
Model Rail Show
Opens October 22

The 25th anniversary miniature railroad show, presented by the Kingston Model Railroad Club Inc., will be held this year from Oct. 22 through Oct. 29. The show operates the two Sundays from 2:30 until 9 p.m., and week nights from 7 to 9 p.m.

The club's "Hudson Valley Lines," a complete miniature railroad system in action, is the oldest operating model railroad in the eastern United States, according to Walter W. Phillips, club president. The local club was organized in 1937, and with the opening of the 1961 version of its show, will begin the celebration of 25 years of model engineering.

Added features this year include a new modern station at "Kingston," and a complete diesel shop and car repair facilities at "MacGuinness Junction." New rolling stock will also appear during the club's exhibition.

Entrance to the exhibition, located at 341 Broadway next to the West Shore freight depot, by automobile is from Pine Grove Avenue over Susan Street, while pedestrians may reach the club quarters from the Broadway underpass and the concrete steps.

Glancing Over TV Bill of Fare

NEW YORK (AP) — Bob Newhart may find himself in trouble with members of the viewing audience who know a comedy sketch only when it is advertised by a pie in the face. But the rest of the TV audience, particularly those who have been hungering for some sharp wit and clever commentary, will make him their hero.

Newhart's new weekly program, in its first outing on NBC Wednesday night, poked some subtle fun at the free enterprise system and organization men and then, even more daringly, went to work on the integration problem.

Newhart's first sketch was based on the premise that local fire departments should be operated as a private business. He played, in a monologue, an office salesman of "Phil's Fires, Inc."

using all the business cliches in making lackadaisical arrangements for his company to respond to a call for help. Any resemblance to the average household's problem in summoning a service man in an emergency was not coincidental.

The second sketch had Newhart playing Tarzan after 40 years of living in his African jungle. Tarzan—and his frowsy, shrill-voiced Jane—complained bitterly about efforts of "the neighbors" to get them out of the neighborhood in a jungle-clearing project.

It was a lively, funny intelligent show. One can only hope that Newhart, with a weekly show, can maintain his high standard of material and wit.

Recommended tonight: "Maggie," premiere, ABC, 9:30-10 (Eastern Daylight Time)—Situation comedy set in the 1920s; "CBS Reports," 10-11—Eisenhower on the Presidency, first of a series of conversations with the former president on the nation's top position.

Dairy Surpluses Are 25 PC Ahead of 1960

WASHINGTON (AP)—The surplus production of dairy products is running nearly 25 per cent ahead of a year ago.

Surpluses purchased by the Agriculture Department under a price support program since April 1, the beginning of the current sales year, total 767 million pounds, compared with 583 million in the period last year.

The products being bought are butter, cheese and non-fat dry milk. Purchases of butter and cheese are running considerably higher than a year ago but those of the non-fat dry milk are down.

A "no cause" verdict was returned Wednesday afternoon in a negligence action brought by Sam Lotaro and another against James M. Reddin and another.

Rift Over Painting Causes Rand Strike

PAINTED POST, N.Y. (AP)—The Ingersoll-Rand Co. plant was struck today in a dispute stemming from a community spruce-up campaign.

The walkout of about 2,500 production workers began Wednesday when the company agreed to paint some of its buildings in the clean-up drive. A painting contractor was hired. Some of the employees said laid-off workers should be hired for the job. Company officials said no members of painting crews were among the 60 persons it said still were furloughed.

Officers of Local 313 of the International Union of Electrical Workers joined company officials in urging the workers to return to work.

The company employs about 3,500 at the plant, of which 2,500 are union members.

Local Resident Gets Jail Term On Check Count

A 30-year-old Kingston man was sentenced to six months in the Orange County jail Wednesday after pleading guilty before Newburgh City Judge Charles J. Roskoski to a charge of issuing a fraudulent check.

Joseph Betley Jr., of Kingston, was arrested October 1 on complaint of Frederick Groll, of 146 Broadway, here. The defendant reportedly issued a $14.65 check drawn on the Dutchess Bank and Trust Company, Poughkeepsie, after making a purchase at Groll's store.

Betley told Judge Roskoski that he had made restitution to Groll, and explained that his error was partially caused by his allowing a friend to issue checks and list the checking account balance.

Soviet Party, World Communism Showing Strains in Background

(EDITOR'S NOTE — Soviet policy under Nikita Khrushchev appears to be riding high, but the Communist chief has plenty of headaches, at home and in the world. Communist camp outside the U.S.S.R. Some of these problems are likely to become evident during the 22nd Soviet Communist party congress which opens in Moscow next week. In the following article, AP News Analyst William L. Ryan outlines some of the problems and gives some of the background on what the congress is.)

By WILLIAM L. RYAN

Associated Press News Analyst

The Soviet Communist Party opens its 22nd congress Tuesday. Intensive propaganda promises it will mark the beginning of a march to Communist world supremacy. To dramatize Communist prospects, the Kremlin may even time a new spectacular space shot for the congress opening.

Despite the showmanship, there are in the background suspicious signs of nervous strain in Soviet party and world Communist ranks.

Premier Khrushchev, first secretary and party chief, promises the congress will be a turning point. It will consider a 20-year program to build the "base" of communism. Theoretically, the U.S.S.R. has built "socialism." Communism, implying promise of abundance, is many years away.

Party congresses in their 63 years of history often have been billed as momentous turning points. Many have cloaked internal struggle. In recent years congresses provided—as the 22nd will—platforms to consider problems and strategy.

What is the party congress?

The congress supposedly is the party's ruling body, to which the central committee and its directing presidium are responsible. Required to meet once every three years, it is made up of functionaries from major political subdivisions of the U.S.S.R. It is supposed to hear and pass on programs of the central committee and party presidium, amend programs and statutes, fix tactical lines on fundamental policy questions and elect various party leaders.

Just Applies Stamp

Actually it does none of this, instead merely applies the automatic stamp of approval. The congress is window-dressing for a claim to democracy. Under Stalin the dictator's hand-picked politburo was the law. Under Khrushchev, the key body appears to be the central committee, where his own political machine has been strong enough to outmaneuver his enemies in the past.

The 20th congress in 1956 rocked world communism. Khrushchev, by then clearly the boss, denounced the dead Stalin as a murderer and egomaniac.

Cloaks Meeting

Early in 1959, with a Berlin crisis fading away, the 21st congress ostensibly was concerned with approving a seven-year economic plan. Actually it cloaked a world strategy meeting. By then the problem of the balky Red Chinese was much in evidence.

Despite Chinese resistance, the congress was forerunner of the intense peace offensive that brought Khrushchev to the United States for a visit to President Eisenhower.

Since then Khrushchev has turned truculent again—perhaps because of pressure, perhaps even because his leadership was at stake. He turned back to the brink of war policy practiced by Stalin in attempts to push communism by violent aggressiveness.

Khrushchev had stood for the notion that the U.S.S.R. could build its economy that its political and economic drives would make communism invincible in the world without the risk of nuclear war. It was a cautious policy.

But while a half dozen years of trouble have passed, the party's ruling body, to which the central committee and its directing presidium are responsible. Required to meet once every three years, it is made up of functionaries from major political subdivisions of the U.S.S.R. It is supposed to hear and pass on programs of the central committee and party presidium, amend programs and statutes, fix tactical lines on fundamental policy questions and elect various party leaders.

Actually it does none of this, instead merely applies the automatic stamp of approval. The congress is window-dressing for a claim to democracy. Hearings Slated Over Color-Comic Monopoly

BUFFALO, N.Y. (AP) — Hearings on an application by Greater Buffalo Press Inc., to open a new color-comic printing plant in Sylacauga, Ala., have been scheduled for Oct. 25-26 in Federal District Court here.

Judge John O. Henderson set the hearing dates Wednesday after a conference with the attorneys in the case, which is preliminary to a trial of Greater Buffalo and five other companies on monopoly charges in newspaper color-comic printing.

Greater Buffalo has sought to transfer some work now being done at a subsidiary plant in Wilkes-Barre, Pa., to Sylacauga.

The government has opposed the shift on the ground it would doom remaining competition of Greater Buffalo in the southeast. It has, however, agreed to a partial transfer because Sylacauga is an economically depressed area.

Details of the dispute will be aired at the hearings.

A temporary injunction barring the transfer of work, sought in a motion by the government, still is pending. The main anti-trust action has not yet been scheduled.

The Federal power commission granted the authority yesterday.

Firemen Prefer Wagner, 'Finest' Like Lefkowitz

NEW YORK (AP) — Firemen for Wagner—policemen for Lefkowitz.

That's how the rank-and-file organizations of the city's two largest uniformed departments stand on the mayoral race.

Acting Fire Commissioner George F. Mand says his men have a right to endorse Democratic Mayor Robert F. Wagner for reelection.

Police Commissioner Michael J. Murphy denounced the action Wednesday of policemen's leaders in declaring Atty. Gen. Louis J. Lefkowitz, Republican candidate, the "best qualified candidate."

A flea with jumping legs of 1/20 of an inch can broad jump a distance of 13 inches and high jump up to 7 1/4 inches. At this rate, a man with legs three feet long should be able to make a broad jump of 700 feet, and a high jump of 450 feet.

Six Dog Attack Victims Remain Home Wednesday

Six of eight elementary grade pupils attacked and bitten by a dog in the Columbus School yard in Poughkeepsie on Tuesday remained home Wednesday, according to Vincent O'Connor, principal of the school.

O'Connor said the eight children were treated at Vassar Hospital, receiving tetanus shots, and a reaction from the shots may have kept six children home yesterday.

William Sutka, a school custodian and Mrs. Grace Murphy, a cafeteria employee, were credited by O'Connor with chasing the dog from the yard before it attacked other children.

Police said the dog named "Suciu" is owned by Leroy Durelio, of 50 South Water Street, Poughkeepsie. The dog was picked up at the owner's home and taken to the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals shelter at Hyde Park for examination.

The dog will be confined for at least 10 days to determine through tests if it has rabies.

Take a good look at the bidding of today's hand. What do you think of North's three spade bid?

The particular North player who made it tough it was just the normal bid that any good player would make. He could not very well raise hearts with a singleton, and a four diamond bid would take the hand past the three no-trump level.

As for a three no-trump bid, North was just a trifle afraid of the club suit.

After North's three spade bid, South went on to four hearts. He was more than a trifle afraid of the club suit. West opened the five of clubs. East cashed two high clubs and shifted to a spade to hold declarer to 10 tricks.

At the other table North was not up to that three-spade bid. He simply bid three no-trump. South looked at his solid heart.

More of Gallo Mob Going Before Jury

NEW YORK (AP)—More of the Gallo brothers mob have been called to appear before the racketeers grand jury in Brooklyn Friday.

Two Gallo brothers and 11 of their henchmen are held in the civil prison in Manhattan in lieu of $25,000 bail each as material witnesses.

Three of the group testified before the grand jury Wednesday after being promised immunity from prosecution on the basis of anything they might say.

Two Gallo brothers—Joseph and Larry—refused to testify when Dist. Atty. Edward S. Silver refused to grant them immunity.

There have been published reports that Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy ordered an FBI investigation of reports of gang warfare in Brooklyn.

In this connection a Justice Department spokesman said in Washington: "We have had this under investigation. It is a matter of concern to all law enforcement officials."

Joseph and Larry Gallo and the 11 other mobsters were picked up by police Tuesday. They are held as material witnesses in the slaying of Joseph Magrasco, a Gallo henchman, and the attempted slaying of Larry Gallo.

Joseph Gallo, shouting in a corridor outside the grand jury room Wednesday, accused the police of harassing him and his pals to make a showing during an election year. Gallo denied there is any gang warfare.

Authorities had said the 13 Gallo mobsters were holed up with weapons in fear of execution by more firmly entrenched rivals.

Red Police Cross Border, Retreat

BERLIN (AP)—Ten East Berlin police invaded West Berlin territory today hunting for a defecting comrade. West police reported.

When West police rushed to the scene, the East police retreated behind the barbed wire barrier into their own sector.

The incident, regarded by the Western authorities as a serious border violation, occurred at 3 a.m.

West police said the Vopos—as the East police are dubbed by West Berliners—were evidently searching for one of four of their comrades who fled to the West during the night.

The raid took place near the elevated railroad station Wilhelmsruh, on the northern part of the French sector border.

The East police blocked civilian traffic Wednesday night for an hour at the Friedrich Strasse crossing point, the only one available for foreigners.

All traffic both ways was held up until a loudspeaker truck operated by the West Berlin city government stopped broadcasting a program of news and commentary to the East.

Forest Conservation Is Topic at Sorosis; Next Meeting Oct. 23

Forest Preserves were discussed by James Matthews, vice president of the New York State Conservation Council, at a meeting of Sorosis recently.

The meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Howard Lewis. Mrs. Arthur Eymann presided at the business session with Mrs. Herbert DeKay in charge of the program.

Mr. Matthews who is active in the conservation program, is a member of the advisory committee to the Joint Legislative Committee on Natural Resources which conducted a hearing on the Wilderness Bill in Kingston a few weeks ago. He has served as a director of the state conservation council, one of the largest conservation organizations in the country.

In his talk he said that forest preservation was established in 1885 when the state took over large holdings in the Catskill and Adirondack areas in order to preserve valuable natural resources.

Now there can be no cutting or removal of trees from any state lands in New York. No other state prohibits cutting on state land, Mr. Matthews said. He spoke of the damage done to the preserves by pests, fire and other elements and the effort the state is making to control them.

The next meeting of Sorosis will be held at the home of Mrs. H. W. Wiggins, North Manor Avenue, Oct. 23 at 8 p. m. The topic of the program will be Conservation of Wildlife.

Vases of white chrysanthemums decorated St. Peter's

Church Saturday, Oct. 7, for the wedding of Miss Shirley Ann Motrie and Joseph Francis Koenig.

The Rt. Rev. Msgr. Joseph D. Ostermann officiated at the double ring ceremony before the nuptial Mass at 11 a. m. Organist was Miss Nan Goldrick and soloist, Richard Scherer.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Motrie of 59 Florence Street, was given in marriage by her father. She wore a gown of silk faced bridal satin styled with a fitted bodice, scooped neckline and long sleeves. Pearls and Alencon lace decorated the bodice and the softly pleated skirt which swept back to a chapel length train. A pearl and crystal queen's crown secured the triple tier French illusion veil. She carried a cascade of white butterfly roses and lilles of the valley.

Miss Barbara Granwehr of Saugerties was maid of honor. She wore a princess gown of vibrant rose satin styled with a scooped neckline and softly pleated floor length skirt. Her headpiece was a matching rose cap with circular veil. She carried a cascade of pink briarcliff roses centered with Better Times roses.

Other attendants were Mrs. Irene Motrie of Lake Katrine, sister-in-law of the bride; Susan Keizer of Port Ewen, a cousin of the bride and Mary Jane Dixon of Saugerties. They wore vibrant rose satin gowns and carried cascades of briarcliff roses.

Francis Koenig of Kingston was best man for his brother, Anthony Koenig, another brother of the bridegroom. Robert Motrie of Lake Katrine, brother of the bride and John Netter of Kingston were ushers.

A reception for 150 guests was held at the Tropical Inn, Port Ewen.

After a wedding trip to Florida the couple will make their home in Troy. For traveling Mrs. Koenig chose a kelly green suit with black accessories and a white orchid corsage.

The bride is a graduate of St. Peter's School, Academy of St. Ursula, and Benedictine Hospital School of Nursing.

Mr. Koenig, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph J. Koenig of 116 Andrews Street, is a graduate of St. Peter's and Kingston High Schools, this city and Wharton School of the University of Pennsylvania. LWV Schedules Coffee Hours Here On Court Reforms

"Amendment One," a skit concerning the need for state court reforms was presented by the League of Women Voters last night at the Sisterhood meetings of the Temple Emanuel and the Agudas Achim.

The skit advocates voting for Amendment One in the coming elections, which would bring about a revamping of the courts on the various levels throughout the state.

The League, which is a non-partisan organization, has studied the court system for six years before making the decision to support Amendment One.

In connection with the coming election, the League is sponsoring a series of neighborhood coffee hours from now until Election Day to acquaint the voters with the issues and candidates.

The first coffee hour will be held this evening at the home of Mrs. Lewis Neponet, Sawkill Road. The second is scheduled for Friday noon at the home of Mrs. Philip Toffel, Robin Lane. Anyone interested in attending may contact Mrs. Gifford Beal, Flatbush Road.

The League also invites the public to attend a candidate's meeting October 31, 8 p. m., at the Kingston High School Auditorium. All candidates running in the Nov. 7 election will be on hand for questions and discussion.

'Know Your Candidates Night' Slated in Town Hall Oct. 25

The Woodstock Town Hall will be the busiest place in town on the night of Wednesday, October 25th when the League of Women Voters will hold a "Know Your Candidates Night." At that time, all local candidates from both political parties will be on hand to face the voters of the township.

It has been announced by the Voters' Service Committee of the League that the program will start with a three-minute talk by each candidate for the lesser offices followed by a five-minute talk by each candidate for Town Supervisor. During this time the audience may start submitting written questions through League hostesses who will be collecting them. A question and answer period will follow with an impartial moderator and time-

Women Hear Greek Official

A record crowd was in attendance Saturday night when the Woodstock League of Women Voters held an open meeting at Deanie's with Andre Michalopoulos as guest speaker.

Mr. Michalopoulos, who is a member of the Permanent Mission of Greece to the United Nations, gave a very interesting and stimulating talk on present-day world affairs. Among other things he emphasized the fact that Greece's heritage makes her a strong ally of freedom and that she is a country which has fought against Communist domination and won. He ended by stating that, while many people in the world today have a very pessimistic and negative attitude, we must renew our faith in mankind in order to overcome our present difficulties.

'Atonement' Is Topic At Sunday Services

The healing and redemptive power of divine Truth will be brought out at Christian Science services Sunday in the Lesson-Sermon on the subject "Doctrine of Atonement."

Peter's healing of the lame as related in Acts (4) will be included in readings from the Bible, together with his reply to those who questioned him regarding the source of his healing ability: "Be it known unto all, and to all the people of Israel, that by the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, whom ye crucified, whom God raised from the dead, even by him doth this man stand before you whole."

One of the correlative citations to be read from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy states: "The same power which heals sin heals also sickness. This is the beauty of holiness, that when Truth heals the sick, it casts out evils, and when Truth casts out the evil called disease, it heals the sick" (p. 135).

Peace Declared

ATLANTA, Ga. (AP)—Georgia and Florida fishing licenses now are both valid along the 102 miles of the St. Marys River which forms the border between Southeast Georgia and Northeast Florida. A reciprocal agreement reached by Georgia and Florida ended long contention between the two states and arrests of many fishermen from both states who strayed across the channel center.

CITY OF THE HIGHWAY—Traditionally, man's cities have grown up near good harbors, rivers, transportation centers, etc. Today, with 41,000 miles of interstate freeways being built across the nation, a new pattern may be in the making. The first city (actually, two cities) to be built for, and because of, motorists is being planned for Ohio. "Twin Parks," to be located along Interstate Route 71, 50 miles southwest of Cleveland, will be a $75 million travelers' center and motorists' city. Shown in aerial-view drawing above, Twin Parks will straddle both sides of the highway right of way with a bridge connecting each half. The city will occupy 2,000 acres and contain 14 motels, 12 gasoline superstations, restaurants, shopping and recreational facilities, a 600-seat convention hall, an airport and twin industrial parks. There is an area reserved for a civic center and future municipal administration.

County Allotted $149,920 Share Of State Gas Tax

Ulster County has been allotted $149,920.52 as its share of the distribution of $6,036,678.90 in state motor fuel tax receipts to the 57 counties outside New York City.

The local figure is $11,666.22 less than the comparable quarter last year when the county's share was $161,586.74.

Allocations for neighboring counties include:

Columbia $89,097.19; Delaware $16,495.27; Dutchess $16,767.82; Greene $78,276.01; Orange $130,151.31; Schoharie $82,510.66; Sullivan $131,887.10.

This total is the share of state collected motor fuel tax for the three months ending September 30, which is being returned to the counties in accordance with the State Highway Law.

The law provides that 10 percent of the state-wide collection of the gasoline tax and the tax on diesel motor fuel are allotted to the counties on the proportional basis of county road and town highway mileage in each county. The money is ear-marked by statute for deposit in the county road funds.

The amount distributed in October of 1960 was $6,559,920.99.

Troy, which was captured by the Greeks who concealed soldiers in a wooden horse they gave to the Trojans, was a massive walled city in what is now the modern-day Turkey.

SCHOLASTIC CORNER

By ED PALLADINO

Add the name of Charles Jenkins to the likes of Hobie Armstrong, Charles Johnson, Gene Massa, Gerry McDonough, Ronnie Ashdown, Sherk Meyers, Richie Spreer, Dick Shewchuk, Don Jackson and Dick Tyler who have made indelible marks as star backs while performing at Dietz Stadium.

The White Plains fullback, a compact 200-pounder, was simply out of this world last Friday night as the Westchester school defeated Kingston High, 33-14. He not only scored five touchdowns but his defensive play was something to watch as time and time again, he spilled a KHS ball carrier or a passer.

THE COACH SAID IT BEST

Coach Bill Burke said it best when this reporter asked him about Jenkins, "He's the best football player one of my clubs has ever played against," the veteran mentor replied. Even the casual football fan could see the greatness in this lad. Whenever Jenkins took the ball you could see that he wasn't just an ordinary performer. It was simply impossible to stop him and even harder to slow him up.

One play stands out in this reporter's mind. In the third quarter, Jenkins took a handoff and went up the middle. A KHS player had a perfect shot at him and attempted to make a low tackle. Jenkins just ran over the lad like a Sherman tank knocking down a giant tree. For sheer power and drive, this boy has to rate near the top as a truly great one.

Those 2,500 or so lucky fans who sat in on Friday's action will never forget Jenkins. His five touchdowns in a single game are a tribute to his ability.

THE LOURDES CASE

George Palmateer, the astute and learned sports editor of the Poughkeepsie Journal, has taken a swipe at Dutchess County Scholastic league moguls for again rejecting an application by Our Lady of Lourdes for admittance into the circuit. We concur with his remarks and agree that an injustice has been done.

Four of the six schools in the Central section, to which Lourdes sought admission, voted in favor: Arlington, Roosevelt, Cardinal Farley Military Academy and Beacon. Voting no were Saugerties and Wappingers Falls. Anderson school also voted affirmative while Dove Plains voted no.

The rub is that even with a majority of the Central section schools voting in favor of admittance for the Catholic school, the issue is still not settled. The smaller schools, who compete in other sections of the league, abstained from voting and therefore, there wasn't a majority in favor of Lourdes.

WHY DO THE ADMINISTRATORS VOTE?

School administrators do the voting in the DCSL and we question the wisdom of this. Why can't the athletic directors, whose business is athletics, vote instead of the school administration?

Their job is to foster athletics and by keeping Lourdes away from an organized league, the boys who attend the school are becoming deprived of an activity which will help them. At the same time, it is not helping the DCSL, which could use another entry.

WHY A 'NO' VOTE?

There are two main reasons, we think, why Lourdes was not voted into the league. The first, and this is just plain hogwash, is that the school "recruits" athletes. Monsignor Cox, the principal and athletic director Eddie Donohue deny this charge. The school has a good scholastic rating and students are admitted only if they have a high scholastic average in elementary school.

Once they are admitted, they must maintain that high scholastic average to stay in school.

IS THE SCHOOL TOO BIG?

The other reason given is that Lourdes is "too big." Here are the enrollment figures for sophomore, junior and senior classes for schools in the league. All but Cardinal Farley and Lourdes are for last year. Those two schools have this year's figures.

Arlington 371, Wappingers 373, Lourdes 329, Roosevelt 238, Saugerties 194, Beacon 173, Cardinal Farley 163 and Highland 95.

Now, is Lourdes too big? Absolutely not. If not, why the hesitation? We feel this school would strengthen the league. Let's have the voting again and those eight schools who abstained should either vote "yes" or "no" and then all of them will be on record. It's a shame and a black eye for this league to keep Lourdes from participating in its activities.

Bob Scheffing Is Voted AL Manager of the Year

By JERRY GREEN

Associated Press Sports Writer

DETROIT (AP)—Bob Scheffing, a weather-beaten ex-catcher who'd been fired by the Chicago Cubs, became manager of the Detroit Tigers before the 1961 season knowing he faced an obstacle course.

He took over one of baseball's most mixed-up clubs, guided it to second place and Wednesday was named the American League's manager of the year in The Associated Press' annual poll.

"I'm grateful to the fellows on the team," Scheffing said when he learned of the honor on arrival at his home in Scottsdale, Ariz., Wednesday night. "They deserve the award, not me."

Scheffing said he was very happy about the award. He added that he expected the Tigers to have about the same club next season as they had this year.

"But we've got to improve our pitching and bench," he said. "Our hitting is good. But we have to improve our defense, too."

Honk Is Second

Scheffing received 105 votes from 174 voting members of the Baseball Writers' Association of America. Second to Scheffing was Ralph Houk, the man who replaced Casey Stengel as manager of the Yankees. Houk received 62 votes. Bill Rigney of the Los Angeles Angels received 6 and Jimmie Dykes, fired recently by the Cleveland Indians, 4. The voting was based on regular season play with the Yankees' victory in the World Series not considered.

"Bob deserves this honor more than anyone," said Rich Ferrell, Tiger vice president. "He had a fine year and we're real proud of him."

Arroyo Gets Bonus

Houk Ready to Sign New 2-Year Contract

By DON WEISS

Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — The New York Yankees happily paying the price of their 19th World Series championship, are expected to sign Manager Ralph Houk to a two-year contract today at an estimated $40,000 a season.

The champs, who set the trend Wednesday by handing relief ace Luis Arroyo a bonus reported at $5,000 for his performance during the 1961 season, have called a news conference at which Houk's signing is expected to be announced.

"He had the respect of his players all the way and personally, I never worked with a better man in all my years. We didn't have a Manager Roy Hamey indicated the club is just as anxious to get him under contract before he heads south.

Houk signed a one-year contract for about $30,000 when he succeeded Casey Stengel as Yankee manager last fall. That he'll be back in charge next year and probably 1963 as well has been taken for granted. He is the third freshman manager in baseball history to win a World Series.

"He did a great job," Hamey said at the Yankee victory dinner Tuesday night. "When you consider the spot he was on, following Stengel, you'd have to say Ralph did an exceptional job."

Locals Hold Key To Resumption At Ford Plants

DETROIT (AP) — Individual problems at 25 local bargaining units held the key today to resumption by Ford Motor Co. following the agreement Wednesday night with the United Auto Workers Union on a new three-year national labor contract.

UAW President Walter P. Reuther said he would recommend to the union's Ford National Council this afternoon that the settlement be approved and a nationwide strike which began 10 days ago be ended.

However, strikes will continue at the 25 local units which have unresolved problems, pending a review of all issues by the international executive board tonight.

Reuther said locals with "legitimate specific problems" will be authorized by the board to continue to strike. But he expressed hope such problems would be resolved in time to permit the company to return to production by Monday.

"We'd like to get the men back to work as soon as possible," said Malcolm L. Denise, Ford vice-president-labor relations who led the Ford bargaining team. "Monday would be fine with us."

In another union action Wednesday night the international board ordered a new ratification vote by Local 72 at Kenosha, Wis., on the American Motors profit-sharing contract. The 12,000-member local rejected the pact by 63 votes in a slim turnout Sunday.

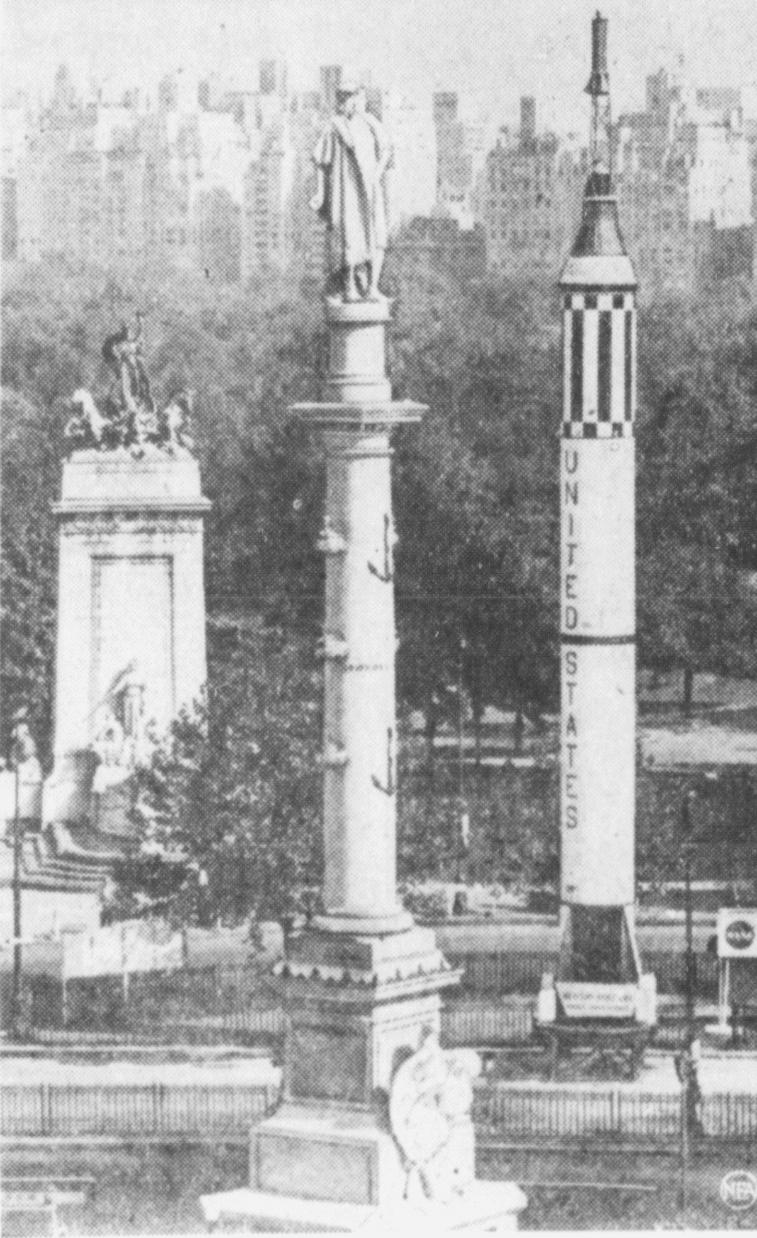

The board said it could have ruled the contract ratified since a majority of all AMC workers voting had approved it. But, the board said, it was calling for the new vote, at a date not yet set, to preserve "the democratic tradition of the union."

Two final pieces of the non-economic section of the national Ford contract were settled at a four-hour bargaining session on Wednesday night.

The two sides agreed to the economic sections of the contract just prior to the strike Oct. 3. The walkout came over the non-wage sections with production standards, union representation, outside contracting and the Ford steel plant proving the major stumbling blocks.

The contract closely matches the General Motors settlement of last month.

Among other things it provides: An annual improvement factor wage increase of six cents hourly or 2 1/2 per cent for each of the Next on the UAW's bargaining calendar is Chrysler Corp. Talks have been proceeding at Chrysler since the end of June but intensive negotiation has awaited the outcome of General Motors and Ford talks.

Approves Anglo Role

BRIGHTON, England (AP) — Prime Minister Harold Macmillan's Conservative party today approved his government's move to seek membership for Britain in the six-nation European Common Market.

The opposition Labor party has already gone on record in favor of Britain joining the European trading group unless the price demanded by the existing members is too high.

West Hurley Vols Set Open House, Inspection Oct. 14

The second annual inspection and open house in West Hurley Fire District will be held in West Hurley Firehouse, off Route 28 Saturday at 2 p.m., it was announced today by Chief Howard Hopkins.

All firehouses in the district and equipment will be inspected. The fire district extends from the Thruway interchange, west to the Town of Olive line.

Following the inspection Nichols Oxygen Company of East Hyde Park will conduct a demonstration on fire extinguishers.

Members of Boy Scout Troop 66 of that community will hold a camp-out on the firehouse grounds during the open house. Members of the troop will be canvassing the fire district shortly to sell fire extinguishers for home use. The proceeds will go to the local Boy Scout troop, Hopkins said.

Refreshments will be served.

Protests Tax Note

DANVILLE, Ill. (AP) — County Treasurer Eddie Ryan often writes letters to delinquent taxpayers urging them to pay before penalties are incurred.

He received a letter this week from a woman who protested that she is not delinquent.

She added: "I am a heart victim. You caused an extra doctor bill. Please be more careful in the future."

Blind Remembers Drill, Calm as Fire Sweeps Shop

NEW YORK (AP) — About 200 blind persons, reacting calmly as they had learned to do in frequent drills, fled rapidly to safety Wednesday after fire swept the third-floor workshop of the Jewish Guild for the Blind.

The sightless occupants, touching hands to shoulders, followed volunteer workers out of the four-story structure at 62nd Street and Broadway. A dozen guide dogs were evacuated from first-floor kennels.

On the third floor, plastic toys are assembled on a contract basis for outside firms.

Cause of the blaze was not determined.

A spokesman said the guild's 8,000-book Braille library, termed the largest in the United States, was not damaged.

A Montana woman suing for divorce told the judge that her husband smoked too much, drank occasionally, was out late once in a while, spent too much money on fishing, read the newspaper when she was talking to him, did not know how to drive the car properly, was abrupt with her relatives, did not go to church often enough and was caught kissing a servant girl.

Sharks Take Test

HONOLULU (AP) — A shipment of Hawaii's black tip and gray sharks have been sent to Australia for a taste test. "We have our fingers crossed," said Michio Takata, head of the state Fish and Game Division. If the sharks pass their exams, Hawaii may have a new industry. Meat of the school shark is popular in Victoria, Australia, where it is served as "white fillets." Hawaii fishermen hope to become shark meat exporters, improving the islands' lagging fishing industry and decreasing the local shark population.

Cholera Scare Ends
